Call for Nominations: Sustainability Council - Staff and Student Membership - FY26

Sustainability, Office of : Monday March 3, 2025

The Sustainability Council/Sustainability Fee Program (SC/SFP) is issuing a call for nominations for two (2) voting staff and two (2) voting student membership positions, effective for FY26 (August-April). Staff and student members serve two years and are active in the discussions and decisions made on the SC/SFP.

The SC/SFP is responsible for identifying and promoting actions and initiatives that will enhance sustainability on campus. Through established sustainability initiatives, the SC/SFP is charged with an ongoing effort to incorporate the principles of sustainability and environmental planning into the short and long-term activities of the university and to share knowledge with the surrounding community to help make the world more ecologically responsible. In addition, the Sustainability Fee Program, a student activity fee, provides grant funding to undergraduate and graduate students for sustainability related projects.

All staff and students of any major from any department are eligible to serve in these positions and can be nominated by faculty, staff or students including self-nominations. Nominations should be sent by email to lori.hamilton@gcsu.edu with the nominees' name(s), email address(es) or other contact information. Nominations should be submitted no later than 5 p.m. Wednesday, March 5.

Apply for Staff Professional Development Funds

Information Technology : Monday March 3, 2025

Staff Professional Development is an important component for career advancement. We encourage all staff members to take advantage of this benefit, which can be used for conferences, trainings, and more.

Staff professional development is defined as any educational or training opportunity that improves and enhances skills and job capabilities related to the staff member's current job. You may apply to the staff development chair to pay the cost of your registration fee up to $500 per person, per department, per six months (January – June and July – December).

Staff Development funds are intended to be used as a supplement to departmental funds. They are not intended to replace departmental funds. Check with your supervisor to see what is available.

To apply, please complete the Staff Development Funds Application.

FY2025 year-end upcoming deadlines

Finance & Administration : Monday March 3, 2025

Please see the following upcoming fiscal year-end deadlines:

CRITICAL DEADLINES

Purchase order cutoff dates:

- March 14, 2025 - Noncontract requisitions over $100,000.
(Noncontract items are not available on state or agency contracts.)

Project requests and purchases:

- March 14, 2025 - Requests that require scope development and/or design components (Ex. Renovation, paint, carpet, HVAC, Electrical, furniture, etc.) should be received in the Facilities Planning Office by March 14, 2025. Contractor pricing, lead time for materials and items that require design (architectural, furniture) all take longer than in years past. If you have any questions, please contact Ranee Parker at (478) 445-8607.

Reminder - Monthly Expenses:

- As your department considers projected expenses for year-end needs, please be aware of any expenses that do not encumber and are posted on a monthly basis. Examples include Verizon Wireless, VoIP, Purchasing Card (P-Card), Transportation, Print Shop, Bookstore, Bank Card and postage. Be mindful of these needs to ensure sufficient departmental funds are available to support these expenses.

Reminder - New vendors:

- Purchasing and Accounting will need to allow four (4) weeks to validate new suppliers as we approach the year-end deadlines.

Please use the following contact list for additional information or clarification:

- Purchase Orders and P-Cards (Purchasing) – (478) 445-0504
- Petty Cash (Accounting) – (478) 445-8516
- Online Check Request (Accounting) – (478) 445-2961
- Travel Reimbursements, Travel Advances and Year-End Travel (Accounting) – (478) 445-1178
- Payroll – (478) 445-6096
- Budget Office – (478) 445-8295
- Facilities Planning - (478) 445-8607

Thank you for your efforts in maintaining these policies and procedures.

A Public Lecture by Cynthia Willett: “Animals as Pranksters: A Multispecies Political Ethics” Tuesday, March 11, 2 p.m. – 3:15 p.m., A&S Auditorium

Philosophy Religion & Interdisciplinary Studies, Department of : Tuesday
March 4, 2025

Horses, apes and dogs use mockery to create their own politics. These animals pranksters play deceptive tricks on their superiors bringing down the alphas. Their high stakes games of status and power do not show evidence of abstract moral thought, but they do enact an ancient political ethics that predates human exceptionalism and is common across species human and nonhuman.

Cynthia Willett is an American philosopher who is Samuel Candler Dobbs professor of Philosophy at Emory University, where she is also affiliated faculty with Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies and the Psychoanalytic Studies Program. She has written influential books on intersectional feminism and founded Emory's Institute for the History of Philosophy. Wuerth named Peach Belt Player of the Week

Athletics : Tuesday March 4, 2025

AUGUSTA, Ga. | Georgia College & State University baseball player Gabe Wuerth has been named the Player of the Week by the Peach Belt Conference.

The junior second baseman from Woodstock, Georgia, hit .524 (11-of-21) with a double, three triples and six RBI as the Bobcats won four of the five games played last week. Wuerth, who scored six runs, had two four-hit games, including a 4-for-5 outing against Augusta University with a triple and two RBI. He had two triples and drove in three runs in a win at Emmanuel (Ga.) University. Wuerth registered an .857 slugging percentage and a .630 on-base percentage for the week.

The Bobcats, who have won four games in a row, return to action Tuesday (March 4) with a 4 p.m. non-conference game at John Kurtz Field against No. 11 Catawba College in a rematch of last year's Southeast Super Regional.

Women's Basketball earns No. 4 seed at PBC Tournament, will host No. 5 Flagler in quarterfinals Wednesday

Athletics : Tuesday March 4, 2025

AUGUSTA, Ga. | The Peach Belt Conference has released the bracket for the 2025 women's basketball tournament championship, which begins with the quarterfinals Wednesday (March 5).

Georgia College & State University (16-12 overall, 9-9 PBC) earned the No. 4 seed and will host No. 5 seed Flagler College (13-14, 9-9) Wednesday (March 5) at 7:30 p.m. at the Centennial Center. GCSU and Flagler split its head-to-head meetings during the regular season with each team defending its home court. The Bobcats won the tiebreaker and the No. 4 seed due to GCSU defeating top seed University of North Georgia last month in Dahlonega, Georgia.

The No. 4 seed for GCSU is the highest since they were seeded fifth in the 2018 tournament and also the first time since 2011 that the Bobcats have hosted a PBC Tournament game. The Bobcats last won the PBC Tournament in 2011. The Bobcats lead the all-time series with the Saints 22-12 with GCSU winning four of the past five meetings, including the last three in Milledgeville.

The other three quarterfinal games Wednesday (March 5) will have top seed North Georgia (15-0-1, 9-0-0) hosting No. 8 seed Clayton State University 5-4, 3-4-2) in Dahlonega, Georgia, while No. 3 seed Augusta University (7-2-5, 4-2-3) facing No. 6 Lander University (8-2-5, 3-2-4) in Augusta, Georgia, and No. 2 Columbus State University (10-3-2, 5-2-2) entertaining No. 7 Georgia Southwestern State University (7-7-1, 4-4-1) in Columbus, Georgia.

The four quarterfinal winners will advance to the semifinals Saturday (March 8) and the finals Sunday (March 9) that will be hosted by the highest-remaining seed. The winner of the tournament earns the league's automatic berth in the NCAA Division II Tournament, which begins March 14 at campus sites.

Tickets are $10 per person and must be purchased online in advance at <https://peachbeltconference.org/sports/2020/10/14/tickets.aspx>. Children ages five and under, and students with a valid ID from a PBC school are admitted free.

All games of the PBC Tournament will be available via pay-per-view at <https://pbcsportsnetwork.com/peachbelt/>. The cost of the pay-per-view is $10 per game, or a tournament pass can be purchased for $20.

GCSU Public Safety Monthly Talking Points and Safety Tips

Public Safety : Wednesday March 5, 2025

March is Emergency Preparedness Month

Here are a few tips you can use.

1. Know the Campus Emergency Procedures:

- Familiarize yourself with emergency protocols for natural disasters, lockdowns, fires, and medical emergencies. Talk to your CA's and CD's or Public Safety for this information.
- Review the university's emergency action plan and evacuation routes.
- Identify designated shelter areas for severe weather events like tornadoes.
- Understand procedures for active threats, including lockdowns and secure-in-place protocols.
- GCSU DPS is a great place to get this information.

2. Create Personal Emergency Plans & Stock Emergency Kits:

- Develop a personal emergency plan, including meeting points and communication strategies with friends and family.
- Build an emergency kit with essentials like:
 - Water (one gallon per person per day)
 - Non-perishable food
 - First-aid supplies
 - Flashlight and extra batteries
 - Medications and important documents
 - Charged battery packs for electronic devices like cell phones
- Keep a mini emergency kit in your backpack with first-aid items and a phone charger.

3. Understand Emergency Communication Channels:

- Sign up for campus emergency alerts via text, email, and app notifications. Use our GC Alert and RAVE App on your cell phone to stay connected.
- Recognize outdoor sirens and what they indicate.
- Follow official university social media and websites for real-time updates.
- Know the emergency phone numbers for campus security and local emergency services.
- GCSU DPS emergency number is 478-445-440 and non-emergency is 478-445-4054.

Georgia College & State University Department of Public Safety is here for you 24/7, ready to assist in any situation. If you have questions about these safety topics or would like more information, a presentation or a training session, please don't hesitate to reach out. We're always happy to help ensure your safety and preparedness.

Outdoor Emergency Notification System Test

Wednesday, Mar. 5, 2025

Public Safety : Wednesday March 5, 2025

Georgia College & State University will test the Outdoor Emergency Notification System (siren system) Wednesday, Mar. 5, 2025. This test is scheduled to occur the first Wednesday of every month between 10 a.m. and noon and will last approximately one minute. No action is required during the testing, and all campus operations should continue as normal. A message stating that this is a test will precede and follow the "alert" tone. In the case of an actual tornado warning, the message would advise of a tornado warning, and the tone would cycle through. This would be repeated every five minutes until the warning expires or is canceled, at which time an all clear message would sound. The audible system test will only be tested when clear sky conditions are present. Tests will not occur when skies are dark or severe weather is predicted for the area on the day the test is scheduled to occur. In this case, the test will be rescheduled for later in the month.

There are three sirens operated by GCSU in Baldwin County: one on West Campus and two on Main Campus.

This testing program is designed to maintain a reliable warning system and to meet recommended testing guidelines. Additionally, we want to maximize the effectiveness of the Outdoor Emergency Notification System. By performing these tests, we hope to enhance awareness and education regarding emergency preparedness at Georgia College and within the local community.

For more information on the Outdoor Emergency Notification System and other campus emergency systems, please visit the emergency systems page on the Public Safety website.

Join the USG AI Community Listserv – Collaborate, learn and innovate

Information Technology : Friday March 7, 2025

The University System of Georgia AI Community Listserv is designed to foster collaboration, discussion and resource-sharing on artificial intelligence in higher education across the USG. Open to all USG institutions, this community welcomes anyone interested in AI's impact on education, research and operations.

Why join?

This listserv will serve as a platform to:

- ✓ Discuss AI applications in academia and their impact on teaching, learning, research and operations.
- ✓ Question and seek insights on AI-related topics, challenges and best practices.
- ✓ Share experiences, resources and tools to support AI integration in higher education.

Who should join?

This listserv is open to faculty, administrators and staff across all 26 USG institutions who are interested in AI's role in education, policy and institutional strategy. Whether you work in academics, IT, student affairs, business operations or another area, this listserv provides a collaborative space for everyone to explore how AI can transform processes across our system.

Key Topics and Areas of Focus

- ♦ Opportunities and challenges: How AI is transforming teaching, learning, research and administration.
- ♦ Ethical considerations: Addressing concerns such as job security, bias and responsible AI usage.
- ♦ Faculty readiness and adoption: Exploring varying levels of AI familiarity and integration strategies.
- ♦ Policy and strategy: Helping shape institutional and USG-wide AI frameworks and policies through open discussions.

Opportunities for Growth

As discussions evolve, spinoff groups may emerge for those interested in specific applications of AI, whether in instructional design, administrative efficiencies, research, data analysis or other specialized areas. Your participation will help shape the direction of these focused discussions.

How to Subscribe

To join, simply email patrick.harris@usg.edu with the following information:

- Full name:
- Work e-mail:
- Institution:
- Title:
- Department or office:

This will help us better understand who is joining and where AI interest is growing across USG.

This is a unique opportunity to engage with AI-focused professionals across the USG system, contribute to meaningful discussions and help shape the future of AI in higher education. Whether you are an experienced AI user or just beginning to explore its possibilities, this listserv provides a space for all levels of expertise to learn, collaborate and innovate.

- ♦ Join today and be part of the conversation from the start!

Jazz Band Concert: Straighten Up and Swing Right!

Music, Department of : Friday March 7, 2025

Thursday, March 13 Georgia College & State University's Jazz Band concert will be at 7:30 p.m. in Russell Auditorium. Get ready for a night of toe-tapping rhythms, soaring melodies, and hard-swinging jazz. This year's theme, "Straighten Up and Swing Right!," is a celebration of the big band sound, featuring everything from classic swing and bebop to blues and Latin grooves. You'll hear timeless standards like Night and Day and The Lady is a Tramp, the high-energy drive of Blues in Hoss' Flat, and the cool sophistication of A Time for Love. They will bring the heat with Frankie Found Cuba and Oclupaca, while putting a fresh spin on favorites like Straighten Up and Fly Right. Whether you're a long-time jazz lover or new to the scene, this concert is all about the joy of swing—so sit back, soak it in, and let's swing right! This concert will also be livestreamed at www.facebook.com/GCMusicDepartment. A $5 donation is encouraged. Online donations can be made at give.gcsu.edu/g/departments-of-music/. All proceeds benefit music scholarships or the GCSU Department of Music through GCSU Foundation, Inc. For more information, please email music@gcsu.edu or call 478-445-8289.

OIB's Spring Dinner with 12 Strangers Invitation to GCSU Community

: Monday March 10, 2025

The Office of Inclusion & Belonging cordially invites you to participate in our Spring Dinner with 12 Strangers event. This unique event, designed to foster connection and community, promises an evening of shared stories, delightful conversations, and a sense of belonging. The theme for this dinner is called "The Reunion". Prior guests of DW12S will be invited back to offer feedback on how the university has progressed since their dinner with us and hear their suggestions/concerns about the future of inclusion at GCSU. However, OIB invites the entire campus because we also want to hear from you.

Event Details:

Date: March 27

Time: 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Location: Atkinson Conference, Room 202

By partaking in this dinner, you contribute to the development of a vibrant and inclusive community. Through a shared meal and engaging discussions about inclusion at Georgia College & State University, we aim to build meaningful relationships that embody our commitment to creating a welcoming and belonging environment.

If you are intrigued by the prospect of joining us as a dinner guest this semester, we encourage you to express your interest by completing the following form:

Dinner with 12 Strangers – Spring 2025

Please note that the Office of Inclusion & Belonging will meticulously curate a group of 12 dinner guests for each scheduled date. Selected participants will receive notifications regarding their inclusion one to two weeks before the dinner date.

Times Talk Wednesday, March 12, noon-12:50 p.m., room 241, Russell Library with Amanda Respass on "Modern Misogyny and the Trajectory of Women's Rights through the lens of Women's History Month"

American Democracy Project : Monday March 10, 2025

Please join us this Wednesday, March 12, in Russell Library, room 241 from 12 until 12:50 p.m. for this week's Times Talk facilitated by Dept. of Communication Instructor and Director of Public Affairs Amanda Respass on "Modern Misogyny and the Trajectory of Women's Rights." In 2025, women outnumber men at American colleges and in the college-educated work force. And more Gen Z women say they are feminists than any other generation. Yet we are in a period of backlash against women's progress. What challenges do women and men face in this decade and beyond? How do our demographics and beliefs frame those challenges?

The following article may be referred to during the discussion:
https://www.nytimes.com/2025/03/05/opinion/andrew-tate-my-kids.html?unlocked_article_code=1.2k4.Pjeb.CYTmptS-dCl8&smid=url-share.

Times Talk at Georgia College & State University is celebrating 19 continuous years as the first in the nation college weekly facilitated campus-wide conversation series on current and significant public events and issues. The topics change weekly and are chosen and facilitated by volunteer faculty, staff, and students. Times Talks are open to all campus and local community members. Just bring your brain. There will be free pizza while it lasts!

Reminder: New Training Opportunity - Confident Public Speaking Skills

Human Resources, Office of : Monday March 10, 2025

The Office of Human Resources is excited to announce a new virtual training opportunity for all employees on Tuesday, March 11th, from 10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. See the link below to register and a description of the training.

Training Topic: Confident Public Speaking Skills

- When: Tuesday, March 11, 2025
- Time: 10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.
- Registration Link:
<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/8503490333487547993>

Description of Training:

Exceptional public speaking skills set employees apart, empowering them to captivate audiences, convey ideas with clarity, and elevate your organization's impact. This dynamic training transforms nervous speakers into confident communicators through proven techniques that reduce anxiety, sharpen delivery, and inspire action. Many struggle with public speaking due to fear of judgement, lack of preparation, or limited practice, but these barriers can be overcome with the right strategies and guidance. Participants will learn to craft compelling narratives, connect authentically with diverse audiences, and command attention in any setting.

How participants will benefit

In this session, participants will:

- Overcome Speaking Anxiety: Master techniques to reduce fear and build confidence in public speaking.
- Deliver Impactful Presentations: Learn to craft compelling messages that captivate and persuade your audience.
- Build Authentic Connections: Develop skills to engage with audiences and foster genuine rapport.
- Inspire and Influence Teams: Enhance your ability to motivate, lead, and drive action through effective communication.
- Elevate Professional Impact: Strengthen your personal and organizational reputation with polished public speaking skills.

We hope you will be able to join us!

Hannah Cail named to All-Peach Belt second team

Athletics : Monday March 10, 2025

AUGUSTA, Ga. | Georgia College & State University Women's Basketball player Hannah Cail has been named to the All-Peach Belt Conference second team.

It is the second consecutive year that the sophomore guard from Savannah, Georgia, has earned all-league accolades as she was named to the third team last season.

Cail, who has started all 29 games this season for the Bobcats, is tied for the scoring lead for GCSU at 12.5 points per game and is first in minutes played per game (27.7). She is second on the squad in field goals made (132), three-point field goals made (45), free throws made (53), assists (47) and steals (19).

Cail will lead the No. 4-seeded Bobcats into the semifinals of the Peach Belt Tournament for the first time since 2018 when they face No. 1 seed University of North Georgia at 1 p.m. Saturday (March 8) in Dahlonega, Georgia. GCSU and North Georgia, which are ranked No. 7 nationally, split its two meetings this season, with each winning on the other's homecourt.

Student rehire process for summer/fall 2025

Human Resources, Office of : Tuesday March 11, 2025

It's time to start the student worker rehire process for summer and fall 2025! HR has updated the requirements for student versus casual labor, which will financially benefit your student workers.

This process is for rehiring students for summer work and/or returning in the fall. Managers can rehire graduate assistants for summer only through this process. The fall rehire process for graduate assistants is separate.

Note: This rehire process does not apply to Federal Work Study students. To rehire a Federal Work Study student, please contact Takeya Miller at takeya.miller@gcsu.edu in Financial Aid to confirm eligibility and initiate the rehire process. No further action for Federal Work Study students can be completed through this process.

HR has scheduled virtual training sessions to provide an overview of the rehire process and answer any questions. One of the sessions will be recorded and made available at HR Student Hiring for later viewing.

Training opportunities:

- Friday, March 14 at 2 p.m.
- Monday, March 17 at 10 a.m.
- Thursday, March 20 at 4 p.m.

Help save lives by inviting NMDP into your classroom

Student Organizations & Clubs : Tuesday March 11, 2025

The Beta Beta Beta Biological Honor Society is hosting an event with NMDP (formerly Be the Match) on campus at Georgia College & State University. The goal is to recruit interested students to join the national bone marrow donor registry. We are looking for opportunities on campus to maximize student participation. One of the best ways we've found is to present NMDP information in classroom settings, offering students the opportunity to learn about NMDP and join the registry. Last year, we registered 182 new donors at Georgia College. We are hoping to beat that this year! We would love your help.

If you are not familiar with NMDP, they manage the national stem cell registry, which has over 43 million donors willing to donate their blood stem cells to patients with blood cancers and blood diseases like leukemia and lymphoma. Many people are unaware that there is a cure for these types of cancers and blood diseases; it's a stem cell transplant. Unfortunately, it is extremely difficult to find a match as it's influenced by your ethnicity. Only 30% of patients will find a match within their family; the other 70% of patients turn to NMDP for help. The ideal donors are 18-25 (although you can join the registry up until age 45), which is why NMDP partners with colleges and universities. Joining the registry takes about five minutes with a brief survey to determine eligibility and a simple cheek swab.

It is our goal as the NMDP representation on campus at GCSU to help build the registry and give hope to all searching patients. We really appreciate the opportunity to share NMDP with your classes and offer your students the opportunity to join the registry. Typically, we ask for the first or last 15 minutes of class. If you have time during any of your classes on April 1 or April 2 and would be interested in having NMDP present to your students. If you are able to help, please click the link below to sign up.

Bobcat Award Nominations now open

Student Engagement, Office of : Wednesday March 12, 2025

The Bobcat Award and Recognition program is an annual award and recognition ceremony for student leaders and student organizations. There are three classifications of awards: organizations, individuals and activities. Please take the time to nominate a deserving student or student organization.

Nominations must be submitted online via the Bobcat Award nomination link. Nominations are due Sunday, March 23, at 11:59 p.m. Student organizations and individuals can be nominated multiple times. Individuals may self-nominate. (This is not seen as a negative thing at all.) Winners of the individual awards will attend a dinner in their honor on April 21 at the Governor's Mansion with President Cathy Cox.

Winners will be announced at the Bobcat Award and Recognition Ceremony on Tuesday, April 8, at 6 p.m. in the Magnolia Ballroom of the Student Activities Center. Any questions regarding the nomination process or the ceremony should be directed to Kristy Johnson, associate dean of Students for Student Engagement.

All student organizations are doing excellent work this year and deserve to be recognized. Please take a few minutes and make some nominations.

Fraternity and Sorority Life specific awards will be announced during Greek Weekend.

Reminder: Submit Rehired Retiree Applications for summer 2025

Human Resources, Office of : Wednesday March 12, 2025

In order to avoid hiring delays, we strongly encourage you to submit Rehired Retiree Applications ASAP for any full-time and/or part-time rehired retirees you currently employ and wish to return or new staff or faculty needed for the next semester and/or as we prepare for fiscal year 2026. Summer 2025 faculty rehired retiree applications may be submitted after courses have been determined based on registration.

TRS communicated a change in their expectations for processing rehired retirees in 2022. To remain compliant with these amended regulations and to keep all processing consistent regardless of retirement agency (TRS, ORP or ERS), the following changes have been implemented:

- STAFF rehired retirees who work the full fiscal year – a single application may be submitted (July 1-June 30 if 12-month or August 1-May 31 if 10-month).
- STAFF rehired retirees who work part of the fiscal year – a single application may be submitted for the work they are expected to perform; the application dates must be within the span of the fiscal year (July 1-June 30).
- FACULTY rehired retirees who receive a full-time, limited term contract (this is extremely rare) – a single application may be submitted (July 1-June 30 if 12-month or August 1-May 31 if 10-month).
- FACULTY rehired retirees who receive a semester-by-semester contract (all part-time faculty) – a single application for each semester must be submitted:
 - Fall: Aug. 1-Dec. 31
 - Spring: Jan. 1-May 31
 - Summer: A separate application is required for each term
 - Maymester: May 1-31
 - June: June 1-30
 - July: July 1-31

The new TRS rehired retiree expectation is aligned with our institutional part-time faculty contract schedule. If you have a part-time faculty rehired retiree, know that every part-time faculty contract issued and accepted will require a corresponding rehired retiree application; this includes any amendments made to credit hours and/or compensation.

Reminders:

- ALL rehired retirees are considered temporary employees and must be reapproved annually or per term, whichever is applicable based on employment type.
- NO rehired retiree can begin work until all approvals have been obtained and onboarding requirements completed.
 - Failure to comply with this may put the rehired retiree's pension in jeopardy!
- The salary that is paid to a rehired retiree must be consistent with their work commitment and:
 - No more than 49% of the last compensation earned at retirement, or the average compensation used to determine a retiree's benefit at retirement (for TRS retirees) whichever is deemed higher; with consideration for the average cost of living adjustment increases that have been applied since the employee retired.
- If the rehired retiree will be teaching, you are required to include the "rate per credit hour" as a separate document with the required course information; if not included, we may deny the application and ask you to resubmit with the missing information.
- Maximum full-time equivalency for an employee is 49% (or 0.49 FTE); no rehired retiree can work more than 19 hours per week. To calculate FTE:
 - $\text{Number of hours worked per week} / 40 \text{ hours in a standard work week} = \text{Accurately prorated FTE.}$
 - Example: Working 12 hours/week would be $12 \text{ hours worked} / 40 \text{ hours in a standard work week} = 0.3 \text{ FTE.}$
 - Part-time faculty: Use the table on the PT Faculty contract to convert the number of credit hours taught to total working hours per week; do NOT calculate FTE solely based on credit hours taught.

If you are hiring a faculty rehired retiree for:

- Maymester 2025
 - Hire Date – 05/01/2025
 - End Date – 05/31/2025
- Maymester & June 2025
 - Hire Date – 05/01/2025
 - End Date – 06/30/2025
- June 2025
 - Hire Date – 06/01/2025
 - End Date – 06/30/2025

FY2026 Begins

- July 2025
 - Hire Date – 07/01/2025
 - End Date – 07/31/2025
- June & July 2025
 - You must execute two separate contracts since these span 2 fiscal years – 1 for June 2025 (FY25), 1 for July 2025 (FY26)
- Full Summer 2025 (Maymester, June and July)
 - You must execute two separate contracts since these span 2 fiscal years – 1 for Maymester & June 2025 (FY25), 1 for July 2025 (FY26)
- Fall Semester 2025
 - Hire Date – 08/01/2025
 - End Date – 12/31/2025

Full academic year hires are Aug. 1 - May 31.

How to access the Rehired Retiree application:

- Visit my.gcsu.edu
- Human Resources
- HR Forms
- Talent Management
- Rehired Retiree Application for Employment
 (<https://my.gcsu.edu/faculty-and-staff-forms/talent-management>)
 - During late Fall 2025, we made a minor modification to the rehired retiree application form; instead of a DocuSign form, we now use FormStack. The same information is requested, but it does look a bit different than it has in the past. We also tried to clarify a couple of things based on your feedback.

After the Rehired Retiree Application (FormStack) is completed at the campus level, several additional steps must occur. Please do not immediately proceed with onboarding once you get the notification that the FormStack has been completed. Remaining action items include:

1. Benefits sends a request for approval to the retirement agency.
2. Upon receipt of approval, Benefits will send the manager an email notification of dates and compensation approved and inform them that they can now consult with Careers for any rehire/new hire onboarding steps. Careers will be copied on this email for awareness and verification that these steps are clear to take place.

If the retirement agency does not approve the request, Benefits will notify the manager and discuss any potential modifications needed or justification for the denial.

Old GeorgiaVIEW/D2L courses to be deleted this summer

Center for Teaching & Learning : Thursday March 13, 2025

In January of this year, the Learning Management System Storage Policy was adopted by the University System of Georgia. This policy states that courses may be deleted from the LMS five years after the end of the semester in which they are taught. Therefore, to improve the management of the LMS and to comply with USG policies, ITS will initiate a data purge within our LMS (GeorgiaVIEW/D2L), beginning this summer, to remove Banner-provisioned courses, and, in the fall, some non-Banner courses.

Banner-provisioned courses

Banner-provisioned courses that are more than five years old (fall 2019 or older) will be purged from the LMS this summer. The current timeline for Banner-provisioned courses to be deleted from GeorgiaVIEW/D2L in this round is as follows:

- In the coming weeks, instructors will receive access to a list of their courses that are set to be deleted.
- Instructors will be unenrolled from Banner courses to be deleted beginning June 16, 2025.
- Banner courses will be deleted beginning July 16, 2025.

Non-Banner courses

Non-Banner courses (such as sandbox courses or programs administered outside of Banner) that have an end date prior to Dec. 31, 2019, or a course created date prior to Dec. 31, 2019, and that have not been accessed since Dec. 31, 2019, will be deleted from the LMS. The expected timeline for non-Banner courses is as follows:

- In the coming weeks, instructors will receive a list of their courses slated to be deleted.
- Instructors will be unenrolled from non-Banner courses to be deleted beginning Oct. 6, 2025.
- Non-Banner courses will be deleted beginning Nov. 17, 2025.

As referenced here, courses include faculty content, student work (e.g., assignments, quizzes and other assessments), and student interactions (e.g., discussions, group work and collaborations). No backup will exist after courses are deleted from GeorgiaVIEW/D2L. Instructors who wish to archive student data and/or course structure & content files should do so in an approved storage repository outside of the LMS, such as in OneDrive. Instructors who wish to back up all course content and student data should do so prior to losing course access on June 16 for Banner courses, and Oct. 6 for non-Banner courses. Visit the CTL Faculty Resources course in GeorgiaVIEW for guidance on copying course content to a new course shell. Additional resources about using the Import/Export/Copy Components tool are available in the Brightspace Community. Be on the lookout for upcoming opportunities to meet with CTL to learn about copying and saving content.

As we learn more about this policy and a standardized purge schedule, we will communicate that across campus.

We understand that with this new policy comes questions and changes in how you typically rely on past course content stored in the LMS. The Center for Teaching & Learning is available to answer any questions and provide support as you navigate the process of backing up data outside of the LMS. Please reach out to us at ctl@gcsu.edu or 478-445-2520, and we'll be happy to help.

TAP Application deadline for summer 2025 is April 15

Human Resources, Office of : Friday March 14, 2025

The University System of Georgia has established an educational assistance program called the Tuition Assistance Program. The purpose of TAP is to foster the professional growth and development of its eligible employees.

The Tuition Assistance Program Application deadline for summer 2025 is Tuesday, April 15, 2025. TAP will waive up to nine (9) credit hours for the semester. Please visit the USG's TAP webpage at <https://benefits.usg.edu/work-life/tuition-assistance-program> to locate the systemwide TAP Application, Graduate Student Tax Waiver Form (for graduate students only) and to reference the TAP Policy and FAQ if needed.

Reminder: Graduate students are encouraged to submit a Graduate Student Tax Waiver Form with their TAP Application each semester, meaning a total of two forms may be required for all graduate students. The USG has stated that it is a suggested best practice for all graduate students to submit the Graduate Tax Waiver Form each semester with their TAP Application.

Employee ID# vs. Student ID#

The USG has specifically requested that institutions remind all TAP applicants that there are two required IDs located at the top of the TAP application - an employee ID# and a student ID#. These fields cannot be left blank. If TAP Applications and/or Graduate Tax Waivers are submitted with missing or incorrect information, they will be returned to the applicant for correction.

- As an employee of Georgia College & State University, your employee ID# is your OneUSG Employee ID#. You can locate this number by logging into OneUSG and clicking on the "Personal Details" tile on the home page. After the Personal Details page opens, you will find your employee ID# in the top left corner of the screen under your name and job title.
- Your student ID# is assigned by your teaching institution (where you will be enrolled in classes). If you are taking classes at Georgia College & State University, this will be your 911#. Please contact your teaching institution if you need assistance identifying the appropriate student ID#.

Email completed TAP applications and Graduate Tax Waiver Forms (if applicable) to benefits@gcsu.edu by 5 p.m. Tuesday, April 15, 2025, for summer 2025 consideration.

Feast for Thought, An Exploration of Food, Society and the Environment by Engaging the Public Liberal Arts

Rural Studies Institute : Friday March 14, 2025

The Rural Studies Institute is pleased to invite you to our last 2025 virtual noon-day discussion series, "Feast for Thought, An Exploration of Food, Society and the Environment by Engaging the Public Liberal Arts." Join us for an engaging interdisciplinary discussion with Georgia College & State University experts as we explore the intricate relationships between food systems, cultural practices and our planet. Whether you're passionate about cultural history and food, sustainability and environmental issues, food culture or society's impact on them, this series will provide a thought-provoking look at how our food choices shape the world around us.

Our featured speaker for April 4, 2025, will be Dr. Katie Simon, associate professor in the English Department at Georgia College, and the interim executive director of the Flannery O'Connor Institute for the Humanities at Georgia College & State University. Dr. Simon will provide expertise in environmental humanities, ecological consciousness and the human relationship with nature. Her work is a historical and literary analysis of society and the environment. Additional information about her work is below.

The goal of this unique series is to foster a vibrant dialogue that highlights our faculty, their expertise and the role of the public liberal arts in exploring agrarian traditions and informing public understanding. We hope to inspire new ideas and collaborative efforts that honor the extensive agrarian and rural traditions of the public liberal arts.

For more information, please see the attached promotional flyer.

To register for the April 4, 2025, 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. event, featuring Dr. Katie Simon, please use the link below:

<https://tinyurl.com/4zaxz9u2>.

Katie Simon is an associate professor in the English Department at Georgia College, and the interim executive director of the Flannery O'Connor Institute for the Humanities. She has also served as the past coordinator for the Women's and Gender Studies Program, and for the MA Program in English at Georgia College. Her research and teaching focuses on American literature, social justice and the environmental humanities. Her work on Thoreau appears in ESQ, and she has work on Flannery O'Connor in Women's Studies. Pedagogy pieces appear in Bad Subjects: Critical Education for Everyday Life (Pluto Press). She is working on an edited collection entitled Forgotten Spaces: Environmental Justice and the U.S. South and a book on Flannery O'Connor. She has a piece forthcoming in the edited collection Reckoning with Racism and Flannery O'Connor.

Volunteer sign up for NMDP Bone Marrow Drive

Student Organizations & Clubs : Friday March 14, 2025

Tri Beta (the Biological Honor Society) is excited to partner with the National Marrow Donor Program (NMDP), formerly known as Be the Match, for an upcoming bone marrow donor registration drive, and we need your help to make it a success!

We're looking for volunteers to join us at various tabling stations across campus during our two-day event. Tabling will take place on April 1-2 from 10am- 4pm. Volunteers will assist in registering people for the national bone marrow donor database by collecting cheek swabs—helping to save lives with just a few minutes of their time!

Here's how you can help:

- Sign up for shifts to assist at the tables across campus. No prior experience is necessary! <https://givepul.se/9x514g>
 - We just ask that you watch a recorded training session video in advance to get familiar with NMDP's mission and talking points. However, we can do on-the-spot training if necessary

Not only do we need volunteers, but we also need people willing to get swabbed and be entered into the database! If you're unable to volunteer to table, please consider taking a couple minutes to get swabbed at one of our 4 convenient locations: front campus, MAX walkway, Donahoo Lounge (at the blood drive), and outside of the Health Science Building. This event is not limited to college students - anyone aged 18-40 can come and get swabbed!

Your participation makes a real difference in connecting patients with the life-saving bone marrow transplants they need. Please consider giving us some of your time so we can help give someone a lifetime.

If you would like more information, please feel free to reach out to Dr. Kasey Karen (kasey.karen@gcsu.edu), or go on their website at

Georgia College Leadership Programs announces Must-Reads of 2025

Institute for Leadership and the Public Good : Friday March 14, 2025

Georgia College's Office of Leadership Programs today announced its "Must-Reads of 2025," a selection of 12 books designed to equip leaders with insights for navigating today's challenges.

The collection spans contemporary works and classics. Each selection has been chosen for its relevance to leaders in 2025.

"Our goal with this list is to offer 12 recommendations for our unique historical moment," says Dr. Harold Mock, director of leadership programs. "While many of these books reflect our contemporary challenges, we've also chosen classics that provide interpretive depth to leadership in 2025 and beyond."

The complete Must-Reads of 2025 list includes:

- Choosing Civility: The Twenty-five Rules of Considerate Conduct by P.M. Forni
- The Middle Daughter by Chika Unigwe
- Amusing Ourselves to Death: Public Discourse in the Age of Show Business by Neil Postman
- The Usefulness of Useless Knowledge by Abraham Flexner
- Letters from a Stoic by Seneca
- The Bill of Obligations: The Ten Habits of Good Citizens by Richard Haass
- Creativity, Inc.: Overcoming the Unseen Forces that Stand in the Way of True Inspiration by Ed Catmull
- Resilience that Works: Eight Practices for Leadership and Life by Marian N. Ruderman, Cathleen Clerkin, and Katya C. Fernandez
- Truth in Public Life by Vernon White, Stephen Lamport, and Claire Foster-Gilbert

- Family by Pa Chin
- Fierce Conversations: Achieving Success at Work and in Life, One Conversation at a Time by Susan Scott
- The World in 2050: How to Think About the Future by Hamish McRae

To enhance engagement with these works, Georgia College Leadership Programs is launching a Virtual Book Club series. These sessions will provide guided conversations and shared insights in a welcoming space where guests will connect with fellow leaders while deepening our understanding of how to serve the public good.

The first installment in the Virtual Book Club series will be Chika Unigwe's 'The Middle Daughter' on Thursday, March 27, at 7 p.m. The session will be facilitated by the author, Chika Unigwe, who is assistant professor of creative writing at Georgia College. Registration is available online.

"These aren't just books to read and shelve," noted Mock. "They're starting points for conversations about how we lead, serve and create positive change."

The Virtual Book Club sessions will help participants apply insights to their leadership challenges while building connections with fellow leaders.

For the complete list of Must-Reads, book club registration and additional information about Georgia College Leadership Programs' initiatives, visit leadcreatively.org.

About Georgia College Leadership Programs: Georgia College's Office of Leadership Programs provides teaching, research and public service related to leadership, citizenship, democracy and public affairs. With the support of distinguished faculty and practitioners, we educate the next generation of Georgia's leaders for the public good. Our programs bring together scholars and students, as well as business leaders, non-profit executives, journalists and public officials and offer a trusted forum on citizen-leadership and pressing issues of the day.

GCSU Retiree Association Newsletter

Retiree Association : Monday March 17, 2025

Note from the Chair:

Greetings Retirees!

As the 2024-25 Georgia College Retiree Association Executive Council Chair, I am pleased to contact you using a slightly modified GCRA Spring 2025 Newsletter format. The format modifications in this issue utilize the University's branding guidelines where feasible. We hope the format modifications will enhance the visibility of the GCRA's deepening affiliation with Georgia College & State University and reflect our advocacy and support of GCSU mission-driven initiatives. University Advancement serves as our home department. Kelly Pope, senior director of Principal, Planned and Estate Giving, serves as our liaison.

The GCRA Executive Council has had a very active year thus far, working on essential infrastructure operations projects. These projects were initiated and guided by the dedicated leadership of David Muschell (chair, 2022-24), completed in December 2024, and are being implemented under the leadership of the GCRAEC's designated Workgroups this current year.

I am pleased to announce that the GCRA will provide oversight for the nomination and selection processes of the Hemphill/Sallstrom Award and will work closely with University Advancement to ensure the awardees' selected GCSU Student Organizations receive the respective monetary awards from the H/S Award Endowment. Our special thanks to Dr. Paul Jahr and his H/S Workgroup members for their dedicated efforts to delineate all the details of this award process. Most importantly, we extend our most profound appreciation to Dr. John Sallstrom and Dr. Ralph Hemphill (posthumous) for establishing the endowment designed to recognize the distinguished service of GCSU faculty and staff retirees annually.

Since its inception, one of the GCRA Executive Council's most ongoing challenges has been obtaining accurate and up-to-date contact information on GCSU Retirees. Thanks to the Communications Workgroup comprised of Cindy Bowen, Ken Farr and Artis Williams, we have a much more accurate and coordinated membership database. This database will need to be continuously updated, but it is a significant step forward in assisting the GCRA in achieving its communication, outreach and advocacy goals.

As you have seen from previous communications, the GCRAEC has made concerted efforts to encourage Georgia College retirees (and future retirees) to participate in meaningful events on campus. These events provide retirees with opportunities to reconnect with each other and the university's essential constituencies, i.e., administrative leaders, faculty staff, alumni and students. The members of the GCRAEC participated in the annual GCSU Benefits Fair this past fall semester. GCSU employees could stop by our table, chat about our association and ask questions about retirement processes and benefits. Additionally, President Cox hosted a GCSU Retiree Brunch in early December. The event was well attended, and President Cox shared updates about the University that were especially pertinent to Retirees and notable university accomplishments achieved during the academic year. It was so good to reconnect with colleagues, some hadn't seen each other since pre-COVID on campus. I encourage all retirees who can attend this annual event in the future!

I invite you to attend our GCRA Annual Spring Meeting & Brunch on Friday, April 18, 2025, at 10 a.m. in the Heritage Hall Reception Area and the Pat Peterson Room. We will dedicate the Hemphill/Sallstrom Award Plaque, recognize the current and past Awardees, and then hold the brunch/meeting session. GC Retirees are invited to attend the Celebration of Excellence at 9:00 AM on April 18th in Russell Auditorium. The newly selected H/S Awardees will be announced at the ceremony. Please save the date on your calendar and plan to celebrate and connect with friends and colleagues at these two back-to-back events. Just a short stroll between the two event venues!

I have one last but essential item to share with you. Several current members of the Executive Council are completing their leadership terms.

The council has open slots that need to be filled and room for expansion. Please see the information below from Robin Harris.

I hope to see you at our events this spring. Don't hesitate to get in touch with me if you have questions about the GCRA or feedback/news you would like to share at sandra.gangstead@gcsu.edu.

Spotlight on History by Dr. Bob Wilson:

J. Luther Beeson (1867-1943) President of Georgia State College for Women (1927-1934)

Probably the most impressive memorials to exceptional faculty and staff are campus buildings named in their honor. In this and some subsequent GCRA newsletters, I will include sketches of the best of them. The beautifully restored Beeson Hall is named for J. Luther Beeson. Beeson came to Milledgeville from Alabama and in 1897 became professor of natural science. Until the late 1920s, Beeson was one of only two faculty that had a doctoral degree, having received his Ph.D. in Chemistry from Johns Hopkins in 1893. Over the years he taught courses in physics and astronomy, but by 1914 his title was professor of chemistry, his classes and lab were located on third floor Parks where the Provost's Office is now located. Faculty who had offices on the second floor complained of chemicals leaking down through the ceiling.

Beeson's solemn countenance, small round glasses and drooping gray moustache, belied his actual personality: he was gentle, kindhearted and endowed with a puckish sense of humor. The students loved him. Dr. Beeson served unofficially as President Marvin Parks' second in command, and, in December, 1926, when Parks was struck and killed by an automobile in Tampa, Florida, Beeson was appointed interim President. A search to replace Parks was undertaken, and the Board of Directors chose a distinguished former GN&IC faculty member named Ambrose Suhrie, who was then Director of the Teacher's College at New York University. Suhrie accepted the offer and was elected President, but in July, he rather mysteriously tendered his resignation, and so Dr. Beeson was now chosen as Parks' permanent successor.

Beeson, now 60 and not in good health, just wanted to stay as head of the Chemistry Department, but he dutifully took the presidency. He turned out to be quite effective, keeping the college afloat as the country entered the Great Depression. Under Beeson, Parks Memorial Infirmary was built, Bell Hall was erected, the college acquired Nesbit Woods where Sanford, Napier, Wells, Parkhurst, and Foundation halls are now located. Also, of major importance, Russell Library was erected. However, when GSCW became part of the new University System in 1934, Beeson was uncomfortable that the college was no longer fully independent. Beeson owned some stock in the local Fowler-Flemister building supply firm, and when Russell Library went up, it appeared to be a conflict of interest to some on the Board of Regents. In April, 1934, Beeson received a letter from the Chancellor requesting his resignation. Dr. Beeson stepped down and, in declining health, continued to teach chemistry part-time, nearly until his death in 1943. When you happen to walk into Beeson Hall, please think of the gentle old chemistry teacher and former president for whom it is named.

Holiday Brunch

President Cox hosted the annual Holiday Brunch Honoring Retired Faculty and Staff. In 2023, President Cox working with former chair, David Muschell, expanded the event to include all retirees. The efforts to expand outreach resulted in increased participation in 2023 and 2024. Attendees enjoyed reconnecting, a fantastic brunch and heard a campus overview by President Cox. Thank you to President Cox for hosting this annual event held in late November or early December.

Be A Part of the Executive Council!

Robin Harris, Nomination Chair, shares information about serving on the GCRAEC. As we expand our participation in university events, we need additional members to help plan and develop programs and information for our retirees and future retirees. You can lay low, listen, and chime in when something strikes your fancy, or, if you'd like, you can jump into a leadership role. There's a place for everyone! If you are interested in serving or have questions, please me at: robin.harris@gcsu.edu

GCSU Saxophonists present at prestigious conference

Music, Department of : Tuesday March 18, 2025

The music and music therapy majors of Georgia College & State University's saxophone studio can often be heard on campus, performing in the Wind Symphony, Jazz Band, saxophone quartets, combos and as soloists. From Friday, March 14th through Sunday, March 16th, however, they were many miles away from Milledgeville representing the Bobcats at the North American Saxophone Alliance's Region 7 Conference at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

The Saxophone Alliance was founded nearly 50 years ago as a professional organization for performers and teachers of the saxophone. It serves as a network that facilitates the sharing of best practices in pedagogy, promotes new music and aids students in their development as musicians. Biannually, the organization hosts regional conferences at universities throughout the country. This year's Region 7 gathering saw students and teachers from throughout the Southeast coming together to share performances, new music and new ideas. GCSU was well-represented with accepted recital presentations by undergraduate saxophone chamber groups the Geecee Quartet (Wesley Harper, Jenna Nelson, Preston Raburn and Autumn Taylor) and Eclectet (Jacob Bryson, Kelsey Carpenter, Cole Flowers and Savannah McDowell), as well as the 10-member GCSU Saxophone Choir. The groups were the only student ensembles featured at the conference from Georgia.

"It's a result of the hard work, talent and dedication of these students," said GCSU associate professor of music Andrew J. Allen, the university's saxophone instructor (who also serves as national president of the Saxophone Alliance). “It’s a pleasure to work with them every day. The fact that they’re playing at this prestigious event with students from some of the most lauded music schools in the country is a testament to the quality of student that Georgia College & State University attracts.”

The conference performances were made possible by support from GCSU’s Mentored Undergraduate Research and Creative Endeavors initiative, a division of GC Journeys. “Without the support of Dr. Kevin Bucholtz, associate provost of Student Engagement and Academic Excellence; Dr. Tsu-Ming Chiang, MURACE director; and the rest of the team, this wouldn’t have been possible. The support that our students receive in the form of travel grants is invaluable to their growth. Many of my colleagues around the country are quite jealous of what we have here,” said Allen.

The saxophone choir consists of 10 students: Jacob Bryson (junior, BA in Music), Amber Bussey (sophomore, Bachelor of Music Therapy), Austin Butts (senior, Bachelor of Music Therapy), Kelsey Carpenter (junior, Bachelor of Music Therapy), Conner Dickey (sophomore, BA in Music), Wesley Harper (sophomore, BA in Music), Savannah McDowell (junior, BA in Music), Jenna Nelson (freshman, BA in Music), Preston Raburn (senior, BA in Music) and Autumn Taylor (sophomore, BA in Music). Both the choir and the student quartets are academic courses.

“Chamber music helps prepare the music educators and music therapists of tomorrow by providing them with real-world musical problem-solving opportunities with their peers,” said Allen. “With weekly coaching from me, they then rehearse on their own, where they must hone their abilities to find and fix technical problems, as well as nurture their interpretive skills. They also develop their ability to communicate their artistic ideas to others in a way that will lead to a high-quality performance. These are real-world skills for any musician, music educator, or music therapist that we work on every day.”

He added that the addition of regular high-profile, off-campus conference performances has helped refine student skill sets.

“It’s one thing to perform for a local audience of friends and family: It’s quite another to present in this specialized environment where everyone else is also a high-level saxophonist” Allen said. “It brings an added level of intensity and seriousness to the students’ preparations.”

The GCSU Saxophone Choir was formed in the fall of 2022, but it has made an impression in its short life. Spring 2023 saw performances at the Georgia Music Educators Association Conference in Athens, the national 2023 North American Saxophone Alliance Biennial Conference in Hattiesburg, Mississippi and an appearance at the 2024 United States Navy Band International Saxophone Symposium. The Region 7 Conference marked the first such out-of-state performance for the GCSU saxophone quartets.

As to the future, Allen says, “These students are already ready for the next musical challenge!”

New training opportunity - Balance not Burnout

Human Resources, Office of : Wednesday March 19, 2025

The Office of Human Resources is excited to announce a new virtual training opportunity for all employees on Tuesday, March 25, 2 p.m. – 3 p.m. See the link below to register and a description of the training. We hope you will be able to join us!

Training Topic: Balance not Burnout

When: Tuesday, March 25

Time: 2 p.m. – 3 p.m.

Registration link:

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/1979864645032191584>

Description of the training:

When chronic stress is not successfully managed, it can lead to burnout – where a person feels negative, exhausted and detached from life.

Because burnout occurs over time and life is busy, it's not always easy to notice the signs of excessive pressure building. Burnout can have a long recovery period. With more and more people experiencing burnout, it's important to understand how to create a balanced life to avoid becoming unwell.

How participants will benefit In this session, participants will:

- Learn about burnout.
- Understand the risk factors.
- Identify the signs and stages of burnout.

- Learn healthy ways to protect themselves.
- Practice a positive wellbeing exercise.

We look forward to seeing you there!

2025 Housing Welcome Book - Now accepting reservations

University Housing : Wednesday March 19, 2025

University Housing and Residence Life will once again be publishing the Housing Welcome Book to consolidate all the information vendors and Georgia College & State University departments would like to distribute to our 2200+ residents. Participants save money and time and have a much more effective message. All pages in the Welcome Book will be printed in full color. There are a limited number of pages in the book – so act quickly by reserving your page(s) today.

- March 19 – May 12: Departments and student groups can reserve pages at the low cost of $150 per page.
- We require all pages in the Welcome Book to be professionally designed by GCSU Creative Services. This service comes at no additional cost and will help to maintain consistency in design for the book.
- Starting Monday, May 12, there will be a standard rate increase to $250 per page on any remaining pages.
- All design materials are due by Friday, June 13.

To reserve your space, or request a copy of the 2024 Welcome Book, contact Matthew Terry at matthew.terry@gcsu.edu.

Our department will not be accepting any other items for distribution to our students at opening.

We are looking forward to your participation in the 2025 Housing Welcome Book.

"Mathematics in Society" - Mini Math Talk - Wednesday, March 26, at 5 p.m.

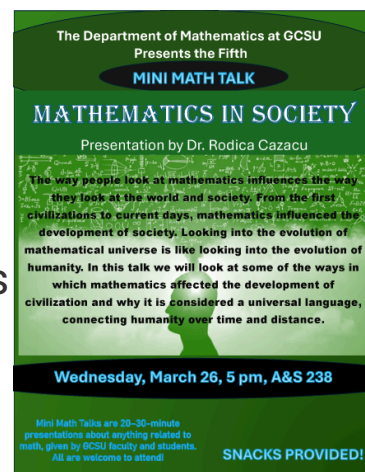

Chemistry, Physics, & Mathematics, Department of : Monday March 24, 2025

Please join the Department of Mathematics for a Mini Math Talk, "Mathematics in Society" given by Dr. Rodica Cazacu on Wednesday, March 26, 5 - 5:30 p.m. in A&S 238. Mini math talks are 20-30-minute presentations about any topic related to math. No math background is required, and all are welcome! Snacks will be provided.

Here is the abstract of the presentation:

The way people look at mathematics influences the way they look at the world and society. From the first civilizations to current days, mathematics influenced the development of society. Looking into the evolution of the mathematical universe is like looking into the evolution of humanity. In this talk we will look at some of the ways in which mathematics affected the development of civilization and why it is considered a universal language, connecting humanity over time and distance.

Impact your teacher effectiveness ratings through the Objective Selection Form

Center for Teaching & Learning : Monday March 24, 2025

The Objective Selection Form opened on March 19 for the spring 2025 semester through May 5. The OSF allows instructors to identify targeted learning objectives to measure teaching effectiveness and responses to the OSF drive summative results on the Student Rating of Instruction Survey. The primary indicator of teaching effectiveness is how well students rate their progress on learning objectives that faculty mark as "important" or "essential" on the OSF. Since every course is different, this research-based instructor-driven model interprets teaching effectiveness based on indicators identified by the instructor. Most instructors, familiar with their course learning objectives, decide and mark the OSF in ten (10) minutes or less per course.

You can access the OSF by visiting the "OSF Manager" at <https://gcsu.campuslabs.com/faculty/>. Also, you will receive an email from "SRISadministrator <notification@ce.mail.campuslabs.com>" with additional instructions.

Please contact sris@gcsu.edu with technical questions or concerns. For assistance completing the Objective Selection Form (OSF) by matching your course learning objectives to objectives found in the survey, please contact the Center for Teaching and Learning at ctl@gcsu.edu or 478-445-2520.

New training opportunity from the Office of Human Resources: Foundations of Wellbeing: Building Resilience and Balance for Everyone

Human Resources, Office of : Monday March 24, 2025

The Office of Human Resources is excited to announce a new virtual training opportunity for all employees on Tuesday, April 8, 2025, from 11 a.m. until 12 p.m. See the link below to register and for a description of the training.

Training topic: Foundations of Wellbeing - Building Resilience and Balance for Everyone

When: Tuesday, April 8

Time: 11 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Registration

Link: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/5647526472525674838>

Description of the training:

In our busy lives, it's easy to get caught up in daily demands and forget what truly matters— our wellbeing. It's not just about avoiding illness or managing stress; it's about thriving in every aspect of life.

True wellbeing encompasses mental and physical health, financial security, strong relationships and a sense of community. In this engaging session, we'll dive deep into how these elements interact and influence each other, helping you build a more balanced, resilient and fulfilling life.

How participants will benefit.

In this session, participants will:

- Uncover the secrets to thriving in every area of life—mental, physical, financial and social wellbeing.

Sunday Brunch Returns to GCSU on March 30

Dining Services : Tuesday March 25, 2025

Georgia College & State University Dining Services is excited to announce the long-awaited return of Sunday Brunch at The Max, a beloved tradition that once brought families, friends, and the local community together. The relaunch event will take place on Sunday, March 30, from 11 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at The Max Dining Hall, located on the Georgia College campus.

Open to the public, this all-you-care-to-eat dining experience will feature a variety of brunch favorites for just $13.84 per person. Public parking is available, and as a cash-free campus, The Max accepts all major debit and credit cards.

“We are thrilled to bring back Sunday Brunch at The Max and welcome the Milledgeville community back to campus,” said Stephanie Moye, general manager of Georgia College Dining Services. “This tradition has always been about more than just great food—it’s about bringing people together, creating meaningful connections and making Sundays on campus special again.”

GCSU Music Therapy students, alumni and faculty make their mark at the 2025 Southeastern Regional Music Therapy Conference

Music, Department of : Wednesday March 26, 2025

Georgia College & State University's undergraduate and graduate programs had a strong presence at the 2025 Southeastern Regional American Music Therapy Conference with 41 students, alumni and faculty in attendance. The event highlighted the university's ongoing contributions to the field of music therapy, with GCSU graduates and faculty presenting research, clinical applications and innovative programming.

Alumni and faculty delivered six concurrent presentations and one research poster session, underscoring the program's emphasis on professional excellence and leadership. One of the most notable moments of the conference featured Bachelor of Music Therapy alumna, Katie Brashear Kleinschnitz ('21), who performed at the Opening Ceremony showcasing an original song that she and her patient created as part of the music therapy treatment process.

Several other alumni and faculty contributed to the conference's educational sessions:

- Gabby Banzon (BMT, '14) and Jay Warren (MMT, '20) co-presented "TECHNOOK Presents: How Do These Things Work?"
- Julia Hufford (BMT, '22) and Katie Brashear Kleinschnitz (BMT, '21) joined colleagues for "Medical Music Therapy: Program Development, Supervision and Innovation at UAB Medicine."
- Dr. Laurie Peebles (GCSU faculty) and Sara Carr (BMT, '23, MMT, '24) shared findings from "Amplifying Veteran Voices: A Community-Based Participatory Action Research Study."

- Katie Brashear Kleinschnitz (BMT, '21) collaborated on "Harmonizing Care: The Benefits of Interdisciplinary Co-Treatment in Rehabilitation."
- Dr. Katie Whipple (GCSU faculty) presented her dissertation research, "Understanding the Pre-Internship Clinical Experiences of Undergraduate Music Therapy Students: A Qualitative Arts-Based Approach."
- Rachel Coon-Arnott (MMT, '11), Kirby Carruth (BMT, '11) and Zoe Reddick (MMT, '23) discussed their work in "Fulton County Schools Show and Tell: Elementary Edition."
- Jay Warren (MMT, '20) and Sara Carr (BMT, '23, MMT, '24) explored resilience in music therapy with "Growing into Resilience: The Importance of Practical Self-Care."

In addition to presenting and attending sessions, GCSU students and alumni gathered for a Student-Alumni Dinner, providing an opportunity to network, share experiences and strengthen professional relationships. Dr. Katie Whipple, undergraduate coordinator and president of the Music Therapy Association of Georgia, emphasized the significance of these professional connections, stating, "I truly value the opportunity to connect our students with alumni and other professionals. You could feel the excitement among the students at meeting alumni working in so many different settings from private practice and medical hospitals to school systems, and non-profit organizations."

GCSU graduates are shaping the future of music therapy in a wide range of professional settings. Alumni at the conference represented organizations across the southeast U.S. including:

- Healthcare & Rehabilitation: UAB Medicine, Southwest Atlanta Hospital, Central State Hospital, Georgia Regional Hospital of Atlanta and Florida State Hospital.
- School-based Music Therapy: Fulton County Schools and Clayton County Public Schools.
- Private Practice: Aria Music Therapy, Triad Music Therapy, Charlie Health, East Tennessee Music Therapy, Perfect Harmony Health, Therabeat, Inc., Evolve Music Therapy Services and Resonating Rhythm.

- Specialized Services for Adults with Disabilities: The Life Enrichment Center, and the Agency for Persons with Disabilities.

With a strong showing at the conference, GCSU continues to establish itself as a leader in music therapy education and practice throughout the state. Dr. Laurie Peebles, GCSU's graduate coordinator and a conference organizer, reflected on the conference, saying, "Attending the 2025 SER-AMTA Regional Music Therapy Conference was an incredible experience. I thoroughly enjoyed watching GCSU students connect with other professionals, gaining inspiration and insight into their future careers. I enjoyed hearing updates from our alumni about their clinical work with their clients and seeing many of our alumni present concurrent sessions to share their clinical experiences with other professionals."

GCSU music therapy students continue to gain leadership roles at the regional level from involvement in the regional conference. Isabella Waddell (BMT, second year) was elected as President-Elect of the Southeastern Region American Music Therapy Association for Students (SER-AMTAS), continuing the tradition of GCSU students serving in leadership positions within the organization. Further, Addy Wheeler (BMT, second year) is serving as the GCSU student representative on the MTAG Executive Board. Dr. Whipple noted the importance of student involvement in professional organizations, saying, "These kinds of experiences are crucial for undergraduate students because it gives them the opportunity to learn how professional organizations work and it inspires them to get involved and contribute to the profession."

Final call: Nominations for Celebration of Excellence Awards

Staff Council : Thursday March 27, 2025

Tomorrow is the deadline for submitting your nominations.

Every April, Georgia College & State University hosts the Celebration of Excellence Awards Ceremony to recognize staff who have shown excellence in their field and dedicated service to the university community. Please fill out our online form to submit a nomination. Below is the list of awards available along with a description of the award. *There are some awards that currently have little to no nominations. If you have questions about the nomination process, please email staff_council@gcsu.edu.

- Individual Service Excellence: This award recognizes individual staff members who have gone above and beyond in their service to students, colleagues and other Georgia College community members during the last academic year.
- Outstanding Leadership Award: This award recognizes individuals in leadership roles/capacities who have gone above and beyond in their service to students, colleagues and other Georgia College community members during the last academic year.
- Team Service Excellence: This award recognizes teams that have gone above and beyond in their service to students, colleagues and other Georgia College community members during the last academic year.
- Bobcat Spirit*: This award recognizes an individual who exemplifies the spirit of Georgia College and everything it signifies. Successful candidates can either bleed blue and green for the university's many sports teams or exude school spirit in the way they exemplify the Liberal Arts Mission - engaging in intellectual, professional or civic pursuits; taking initiative; answering the call to leadership; and building a better university community for the future.

- Bobcat Partner Award*: Not all members of Team Georgia College are employed by the university. This award recognizes a business or organization that, although not a part of Georgia College, helps the campus community achieve its mission and goals as if it were a member of the team. Successful nominations could be for a vendor that does business with Georgia College or an organization that partners with Georgia College departments, on-campus organizations or initiatives.
- The Eve Puckett Community Service Award*: This award recognizes an individual who donates his or her time to on campus or community volunteer opportunities above and beyond their responsibilities at Georgia College.

GCSU Wind Symphony Concert: "Mirrors and Windows"

Music, Department of : Friday March 28, 2025

Thursday, April 3 Georgia College & State University's Wind Symphony will give a concert in Russell Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. The "Mirrors and Windows" concert is a celebration of diverse musical voices, carefully chosen to reflect the identities and experiences of our ensemble while introducing new perspectives. This program features works by women and underrepresented composers, blending powerful, personal connections with opportunities to explore unfamiliar musical landscapes. Each piece serves as either a mirror, resonating with students' identities and emotions, or a window, offering insight into different cultures and perspectives. Through this repertoire, we aim to foster a more inclusive, meaningful musical experience for both performers and audiences alike.

This concert will also be livestreamed at www.facebook.com/GCMusicDepartment. A $5 donation is encouraged. Online donations can be made at give.gcsu.edu/g/departments-of-music/. All proceeds benefit music scholarships or the GCSU Department of Music through GCSU Foundation, Inc. For more information, please email music@gcsu.edu or call 478-445-8289.

GCSU Summer 2025 Research Funding

Mentored Undergraduate Research and Creative Endeavors (MURACE) : Monday March 31, 2025

MURACE Summer Scholarship Funding provides Georgia College & State University undergraduate students the opportunity to work on mentored research or creative projects for a minimum of eight weeks over the summer while getting compensated for their time. By the end of the summer, students should be prepared to share their work at the Georgia Undergraduate Research Conference (GURC), as well as a conference in the discipline of the project. Projects from all disciplines are welcome.

The 2025 MURACE Summer Scholarship award amount before taxes and mandated deductions is $3,000 for each student recipient and $1,000 for mentors. Any full-time member of the teaching faculty is eligible to serve as a mentor for undergraduate students. Faculty must be actively engaged in mentoring students in person and on-site at GCSU for the duration of the eight weeks (at minimum) or more. Faculty may mentor any number of student research projects but can only receive a maximum of $2,000 for mentoring multiple students who receive funding. An additional $500 is available to purchase supplies related to the project.

Application Information

- Due date: April 14, 2025
- Faculty Mentor Approval due date: April 18, 2025
- Click for the Application Link.

Contact Dr. Tsu-Ming Chiang via email at murace@gcsu.edu. Contact should be made at least one week before the application deadline. Please visit the MURACE webpage for further information.

Portraiture and Presence

Ina Dillard Russell Library : Monday March 31, 2025

We are exhibiting student work on the second floor of the Ina Dillard Library - Ceramic art: Portraiture and Presence on March 31 from 1 p.m. until 2 p.m.

Let's take a closer look at faces! This art project demonstrates the ideas behind how sculptors sculpt faces. Students worked through ideas including presence, character, subverting ideals, absence of color, making faces and even the blank face. Identity and individualized portraits are sure to evoke and suggest presence.

The sculptures will be on display through April 25.

The students of Spring 2025 Ceramics Arts 3510 are Chloe Chivers, Clary Eidell, Emily Favre, Ellen Gunji, MaryEllen Hagberg, Katelyn Moorman, Bristol Parker, Ellen Patton, Debbie Pittman, Haley Reynolds, Phoebe Sercher and Samantha Stockham.
