Upcoming CTL Workshops

Center for Teaching & Learning : Monday April 13, 2020

Flipping the Classroom

Monday, April 13 from 3:00 pm to 4:45 pm

Tuesday, April 14 from 12:30 pm to 2:15 pm

"Flipping" a course is the practice of moving the learning of some of the foundational knowledge of a course outside of face-to-face class time in order to free up time in class for activities that are more active and engaging - activities that need to be done face to face. But how do you create modules that are ideal for students to learn from at home? And then what do you do in class with the time you've freed up? Dr. Cynthia Alby explains! This workshop will be offered twice, once on Monday, April 13, and again on Tuesday, April 14. Registrants will receive a link to join the WebEx session of their choice for this workshop.

Encouraging Students to Prepare Well for Class

Monday, April 20, 3 pm to 4:45 pm

Tuesday, April 21, 12:30 pm to 2:15 pm

You know how it is - if students come well prepared, class is a dream, and if they don't... oh the horror! But what if you could take some simple steps to drastically improve the quality and quantity of students' preparation? Curious? Let's see if Dr. Cynthia Alby can help you up your odds. This workshop will be offered twice, once on Monday, April 20, and again on Tuesday, April 21. Registrants will receive a link to join the WebEx session of their choice for this workshop.

May Virtual Graduate Commencement Ceremony

Registrar's Office : Wednesday April 22, 2020

As we seek to do our part to comply with social distancing and shelter in place orders, we have postponed our traditional May commencement ceremonies until it is safe to host a large gathering. After restrictions are lifted, we will announce new dates for our traditional ceremonies for the Class of 2020. Graduating students who cannot attend their rescheduled ceremony may choose to participate in December or next May's event.

In the meantime, we will host a virtual graduate commencement ceremony for the Class of 2020 on Friday, May 1 at 7:00 PM. This ceremony will be broadcast as a YouTube Premiere event, and graduates, faculty, staff, family, and friends will be able to interact online during the ceremonies. A link will be circulated closer to the event.

The ceremony will include customary speakers and a conferral of degrees. All graduating graduate students will be recognized individually. Graduation candidates have each received an email from StageClip inviting them to upload a picture and a quote or comment that will be displayed as their names are read, as well as a video clip that they can share on social media after the ceremony.

Additional information on both the virtual and traditional ceremonies is available on the Registrar's Office graduation and commencement web page.

COVID-19 Preparedness: Upcoming Webinars

Center for Teaching & Learning : Wednesday April 22, 2020

In light of the spread of the coronavirus, the Center for Teaching and Learning will be providing training by CTL staff members to aid faculty members that would like to create online resources for their students.

Using GeorgiaVIEW Webinar

Friday, May 1, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Barb Szyjko and Jaclyn Queen will be providing training to aid faculty members that would like to create online resources for their students. Simple steps that can be taken to provide students with academic continuity for your courses. These can include creating a module, developing a discussion board, setting up a quiz/exam, and uploading your syllabus. Registrants will be sent the link to attend the webinar.

GeorgiaVIEW Grade Book Webinar

Tuesday, May 5, 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The GeorgiaVIEW grade book is a versatile, and flexible grade book system that faculty can customize to fit their needs. Whether a points-based grading system or a weighted grading system is used, this grade book should fit the need. Students love having the grade book online so they have constant access. Barb Szyjko will provide an overview of the grade book general settings, how to set up a points system, and how to set up a weighted system. Registrants will be sent the link to attend the webinar.

Digital Access: Documents Webinar

Wednesday, May 6, 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Struggling to make your documents digitally accessible for all of your students? Then let this session help! Barb Szyjko and Simeco Vinson will cover the basics of creating digital documents that are readable by all. Word, HTML, and PDF can be formatted using styles, fonts, font sizes and other tools of the trade. This session will cover which fonts will be easier to read and participants will learn how to modify existing styles. Several approaches for making your documents accessible will be demonstrated and attendees will be introduced to accessibility checkers. Barb and Simeco will also spend time providing you with specific academic scenarios for application along with providing a contextual framework of who may need these materials. They would like to discuss why these are important and offer some academic solutions. Finally, the session will wrap up by introducing participants to the CTL's faculty checklist for accessibility. Registrants will be sent the link to attend the webinar. A recording will be released.

Digital Connections Webinar

Thursday, May 7, 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Are you looking for ways to maintain a connected virtual presence to relieve student anxiety while teaching remotely? Connecting with students during remote instruction is very important. As we embark on the journey to develop courses for remote instruction, steps can be taken to provide students with a framework for transformative learning. Jaclyn Queen will help you build a connection with students right from the start. To build those connections, a framework has to be in place and the course has to be designed for communication, collaboration, and activities to promote learning. Learn to create a communication plan, utilizing virtual tools to provide office hours and class discussion outside of assignments, ways to provide personal feedback on assignments, and more. Registrants will be sent the link to attend the webinar. A recording will be released.

Taking Education Virtual with Kaltura Webinar

Friday, May 8th, 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Teaching through multimedia is the new solution to taking education virtual. In this webinar, Jaclyn Queen will provide you with tips, instructions, and resources on how to record lessons, content, and upload material to your course(s) in GeorgiaVIEW. This workshop will focus on using Kaltura, a screen recording software, that is built into GeorgiaVIEW. Attendees will learn the basics of recording their screen, saving and uploading video recording files to GeorgiaVIEW, and learn the importance of incorporating a script and closed captions. Attendees will also get a glimpse of additional software that can be used to record what is on the screen. Registrants will be sent the link to attend the webinar.

Digital Access: Multimedia

Tuesday, May 19, 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

As we work to place multimedia materials online, it is important to provide for multiple modalities. Participants in this webinar will learn how to develop PowerPoint slides, audio, video, and images with formatting optimized for accessibility. Some of the topics will include closed caption for videos, transcripts for audio/video, alt text for images, among others. Barb Szyjko and Simeco Vinson will also spend time providing you with specific academic scenarios for application along with providing a contextual framework of who may need these materials. They will also discuss why these are important and offer some academic solutions. Participants will be introduced to the CTL faculty checklist for accessibility and some approaches for creating transcripts in WebEx and Kaltura videos. Registrants will be sent the link to attend the webinar. A recording will be released.

May Virtual Undergraduate Commencement Ceremony

Registrar's Office : Wednesday April 22, 2020

As we seek to do our part to comply with social distancing and shelter in place orders, we have postponed our traditional May commencement ceremonies until it is safe to host a large gathering. After restrictions are lifted, we will announce new dates for our traditional ceremonies for the Class of 2020. Graduating students who cannot attend their rescheduled ceremony may choose to participate in December or next May's event.

In the meantime, we will host a virtual undergraduate commencement ceremony for the Class of 2020 on Saturday, May 2 at 9:00 AM. This ceremony will be broadcast as a YouTube Premiere event, and graduates, faculty, staff, family, and friends will be able to interact online during the ceremonies. A link will be circulated closer to the event.

The ceremony will include customary speakers and a conferral of degrees. All graduating undergraduate students will be recognized individually. Graduation candidates have each received an email from StageClip inviting them to upload a picture and a quote or comment that will be displayed as their names are read, as well as a video clip that they can share on social media after the ceremony.

Additional information on both the virtual and traditional ceremonies is available on the Registrar's Office graduation and commencement web page.
