Notes on Attachments

You must open this document in Adobe Reader (or equivalent) to see attached documents. Most browsers do not allow access to these embedded files.

The screenshot displays the Adobe Reader interface. At the top, there is a toolbar with icons for save, star, share, print, and search, along with page navigation controls (up and down arrows), page number '10 / 116', and zoom controls (hand, minus, plus) set to 117%. On the left side, there is a sidebar with icons for document, bookmark, and search. The 'Attachments' panel is open, showing a list of PDF files. The 'Organizer' panel is also open, displaying a table of contents with two entries: 'DEPARTMENT WEB SITE' and 'ATTACHMENT'. A green box highlights the 'Attachments' panel title. A green arrow points from the 'Georgia Power seminar series.pdf' entry in the attachments list to the 'ATTACHMENT' entry in the organizer panel.

Don't Forget to "Dodge the Dump" During Move-Out

Sustainability, Office of : Tuesday May 4, 2021

The Office of Sustainability and University Housing are excited to announce that they are sponsoring the 2021 Dodge the Dump campaign. During Dodge the Dump, students moving out of the residence halls will have the opportunity to donate gently used household furniture, appliances, clothing, bedding, and non-perishable food items. If you are a student living in one of the residence halls, ask your CA about your building's donation area. If you live off-campus and would like to make a donation, please email sustaingc@gcsu.edu to coordinate a drop-off. All items will be donated to Milledgeville community organizations. Dodge the Dump will end on Friday, May 7.

Master Class with The Family Land Lawyer - Mrs. Veronica McClendon

Rural Studies Institute : Thursday May 6, 2021

The Black Farmers' Network (BFN) will host its first virtual "Master Class" with Principal Attorney Veronica McClendon. Known as, The Family Land Lawyer, Mrs. McClendon specializes in heirs property, estate planning, will creation, title clearing and risk management planning. Attorney McClendon educates on the importance of transferring land wealth to the next generation through sound planning practices. While her work covers all communities, she specializes in land issues prevalent to the Black Belt region. In partnership with BFN, Mrs. McClendon will hold a three-part course series to assist participants in navigating topics associated with land acquisition, retention and risk management.

The first Master Class in this course series begins Monday, May 17, 2021 at 12:00 pm – 1:30 pm. Please click here to register for this event. If you have any questions about registration for this course series, please contact Kimberly Moore at kimberly.moore@gcsu.edu.

For more general questions, please contact Veronica Womack at veronica.womack@gcsu.edu. The Black Farmers' Network (BFN) is a collaborative program with the Rural Studies Institute (RSI) at Georgia College and is funded by a United States Department of Agriculture grant. For more information on the BFN please visit us at www.blackfarmersnetwork.com or to learn more about the RSI, please go to www.gcsu.edu/ruralstudies.

Time for Reflection: Lessons Learned from COVID

Center for Teaching & Learning : Monday May 10, 2021

May 12, 2 p.m.

Feeling overwhelmed and mournful as a result of the year we have just had? The Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL) would like to open up space for folks to come and reflect on what they experienced, the sense of loss felt when we made the transition to remote instruction, and then dig into the pile of experiences we have gone through over the previous semesters to identify what were positive outcomes and how we can parlay those into our teaching as we continue to move forward. We'll proceed through a series of activities that will help highlight lessons learned and next steps. Join us!

Register for Time for Reflection - Lessons Learned from COVID!

Course Quality: Developing Quality Online Courses

Center for Teaching & Learning : Friday May 14, 2021

Course Quality: Developing Quality Online Courses

May 26, 9 am to 4 pm

During the Summer, wouldn't you like to improve your online courses' quality in preparation for the upcoming academic year? If so, the Center for Teaching and Learning offers you another opportunity to register for Quality Matters (QM) training. Upon completing the QM training, you will receive a certificate from Quality Matters, verifying your readiness to develop a quality online course.

Nationally recognized, Quality Matters is the global organization leading quality assurance in online and innovative digital teaching and learning environments. It provides a scalable quality assurance system for online and blended learning used within and across organizations. QM designed the professional development to help educators deliver the promise of quality online learning opportunities to every level of learning.

However, to carry out the workshop, we must have at least six (6) participants. Register through the MyQM portal, and invite a colleague! This is a Statewide Systems training and anyone in the University System of Georgia (USG) can attend.

Here's the information to register through QM:

1. Login to your MyQM portal.
2. Navigate to select the "Workshop - Register" menu.
3. Select the "Dedicated Training" link.
4. Locate the correct session, "Applying the QM Rubric - Virtual (APPQMR) : (Statewide Systems)" for May 26, 2021, facilitated by Simeco Vinson.
5. Select the "Register" link and follow the steps to register for the session.
