5th Annual Making Excellence Inclusive Day! Tuesday, August 10th

Inclusive Excellence, Office of : Tuesday August 3, 2021

Dear Members of the Georgia College Community,

I am happy to announce today that the 5th Annual Making Excellence Inclusive Day Program will be next Tuesday, August 10th from 9:00am to 4:00pm in the Arts and Sciences Auditorium and classrooms for the breakout sessions. The theme for this year's Program is, "Where Do We Go From Here? Building Community in a Challenging Time".

The opening keynote lecture will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Jamie C. Washington, President and Diversity Consultant, Washington Consulting Group, who will address the theme for this year's program from a national, higher education perspective. Dr. TaJuan Wilson, the Chief Diversity Officer at Georgia Southern University, will follow Dr. Washington and address our theme as it relates to our challenges in the state of Georgia and as members of the University System.

The afternoon program will be an extension of this theme discussed in practical information sessions led by Faculty and Staff Diversity Peer Educators. The sessions held from 1:30pm to 4:15 will include the following topics: "Developing an Inclusive Syllabus," "Respecting Identities on Campus," "Facilitating Difficult Discussions," and "How to Become a Diversity Champion".

Please register here to attend the morning plenary and the afternoon breakout sessions.

We hope to see you there for a day of helpful reflection and information to start the new academic year!

GeorgiaVIEW Bootcamp: Get Ready for the New Semester

Center for Teaching & Learning : Thursday August 5, 2021

As instructors are thinking about setting their GeorgiaVIEW courses for the Fall semester, the folks at the Center for Teaching and Learning would like to help! We are offering a workshop and open lab on Monday, August 9, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon in Russell Library 376.

This two-hour workshop aims to offer all instructors an opportunity to finish their GeorgiaVIEW setup for the Fall semester. We will start with a brief introduction to the grade book set up, and participants will have a chance to work on their own teaching projects. Faculty members are encouraged to bring their syllabus and laptop to the workshop. CTL staff will be onsite to facilitate any GeorgiaVIEW projects.

Faculty Recital: An die Musik - Youngmi Kim, soprano

Music, Department of : Friday August 6, 2021

Monday, Aug. 30 Georgia College's Music Department kicks off its 2021 fall season with a faculty recital at 7:30 p.m. in Magnolia Ballroom, featuring soprano Youngmi Kim and pianist Lev Ryabinin. The recital title "An die Musik" means "To Music." The evening will be a 'prayer of gratitude' to the art of music--including four songs by early-Romantic German composer Franz Schubert, three songs by contemporary American composer Lori Laitman, four pieces by Classical English composer Joseph Haydn and seven songs by early 20th-Century Spanish composer Fernando Obradors. Schubert's "Heidenröslein" (Wild Little Rose) explores the pain of thorns, while Haydn's "Sailor's song" describes the wildness of the sea. Obrador's "Con amores, la mi madre" (With Love, My Mother) is a sweet lullaby. A $5 donation is encouraged. All proceeds benefit music scholarships or the GC Department of Music through GCSU Foundation, Inc. For more information, please email music@gcsu.edu or call 478-445-8289.

Dinner with 12 Strangers: A New Building Community Initiative from OIE

Inclusive Excellence, Office of : Wednesday August 11, 2021

The Office of Inclusive Excellence is pleased to announce “Dinner With 12 Strangers”, a new “building community” event at Georgia College. During the fall semester there will be three Dinners that will include a delicious meal, fun ice-breakers, personal introductions, and an engaging conversation about how we can make Georgia College a more welcoming community for all. Twelve selected individuals from all areas of campus will be invited to be one of the twelve strangers who meet for dinner. The Dinners will be hosted from 5:30pm to 7:00pm on three nights during the fall semester: September 16th (Humber White House), October 21st (Cultural Center) and November 18th (Mayfair Hall). If you are interested in being a guest at one of the three Dinners this fall, please send your name and a short statement about why you would like to participate in this community building event to oie@gcsu.edu by August 20th. Dinner guests will be selected by the Office of Inclusive Excellence and notified at least two weeks before the dinner is scheduled. Thank you for participating in this exciting new building community program.

GURC 2021 Conference

GC Journeys : Monday August 16, 2021

We are excited to announce a call for proposals for the 2021 Georgia Undergraduate Research Conference.

We are now accepting abstracts from students in all disciplines. The final submission deadline is September 15, 2021 at 11:59PM. Abstracts can be submitted here. The link is also available on our website.

Non-UWG students will need to create a free InfoReady account in order to submit their abstract(s). I have attached an infographic here with instructions that can be shared with students, in addition to the written instructions below.

To submit an abstract to GURC 2020 (non-UWG students):

- Begin on the UWG InfoReady website.
- Click Login in the upper right corner.
- Click the Register button at the bottom of the page.
- Enter your information using your school email address. Click Create Account.
- Check your email to confirm your account.
- Click 2020 Georgia Undergraduate Research Conference (GURC) Abstract Submission, and complete the application.

Students can send any questions to GURC here at gurc@westga.edu.

Please read the following information before submitting your abstract.

The Georgia Undergraduate Research Conference is a regional, multidisciplinary conference open to undergraduates both within Georgia and beyond. GURC 2021 will be hosted by the University of West Georgia on November 5-6, 2021, and will be held in person at UWG's Carrollton campus. GURC welcomes all fields of research and creative activities. Students whose abstracts are accepted are expected to attend and present.

Use this application to submit an abstract of no more than 300 words for a presentation in one of the following formats:

- Oral Presentation (for individual submission or full panels/sessions)
- Poster Presentation (for research or creative works)
- Visual Arts Presentation (for sculpture, painting, photography, etc.)
- Performance Presentation (for drama, music, theater, creative writing, etc.)

Your submitted abstract will be routed to two GURC faculty reviewers. You are encouraged to work on your abstract and submission with your faculty sponsor.

Generally, abstracts should:

- Clearly explain the project's purpose and/or research question(s)
- Offer an overview of the scholarly context of the project
- Include any methodological approaches used
- Discuss the outcomes of the project
- Make a clear case for the significance or relevance of the project to the larger field of inquiry
- Include references (but they are not required)
- Be well-written, well-organized, and adhere to the standards of academic writing
- Be written for an educated audience, though not necessarily in your exact field

Additional information:

- Abstracts for the visual arts should also upload an image(s) of their artwork.
- Abstracts for the performing arts may also upload a video. These additional files are not required; an abstract will suffice.
- Please be sure to proofread carefully as selected abstracts may be posted online.
- GURC also welcomes in-process projects that may not be completely finalized by the conference.

Acceptances will be sent by October 8, 2021.

The GC Border-Free Initiative: Join an Info Session

International Education Center : Monday August 30, 2021

Let your creativity shine! Join the International Education Center in exploring the many ways in which the world can enhance the GC experience for our entire community. The Border-Free initiative at Georgia College affords all students, faculty, and staff the opportunity to engage with the global community regardless of barriers, whether actual or perceived, and without the need to travel. The use of technology facilitates affordable, sometimes even cost-free, opportunities to connect with students, faculty, staff, community members, and experts throughout the world in both academic, professional, pre-professional, and social environments.

Please join one of the upcoming sessions to learn about the GC Border-Free initiative and how you can create innovative intercultural learning opportunities.

TICKETS NOW ON SALE FOR JAZZ AT THE MAGNOLIA.

MILLEDGEVILLE- Saturday, September 18, 7:30 pm Allied Arts and the Georgia College Music Department have teamed up to bring the community Jazz at the Magnolia, as an In Person and also as a Live-Streamed Community Fundraiser Event, featuring pianist Louis Heriveaux, as well as the Georgia College Faculty Jazz Quartet. The concert will take place on September 18st at 7:30 p.m. at the Magnolia Ballroom in downtown Milledgeville on the Georgia College Campus. A $20 Ticket for the In-Person concert includes refreshments. Or a $15 donation will get you on the list for a link to watch the performance virtually. For an additional donation of $10, you will receive access to the May 1 Jazz at the Magnolia performance and corresponding Zoom Chat, which you can view at your convenience. All of these options can be purchased by visiting Allied Arts at milledgevillealliedarts.com or by calling 478-452-3950. The proceeds will be used to support Allied Arts and the GC Music Department through the GCSU Foundation, Inc.

The Georgia College Faculty Jazz Quartet was formed in fall 2019. It has performed as part of the concert series and hosted Amici Jazz Jams, as well as other community events. Performers include Don Parker, vibes/drums; Chris Enghauser, bass; Andrew Allen, saxophone, and Mia Eaton, drums. Pianist Louis Heriveaux, a 2013 graduate of Georgia State University with a Bachelor of Music, Concentration in Jazz Studies, has over 25 years of experience as a jazz musician. He also has worked as a producer and studio engineer in a variety of genres, such as jazz, Pop Hip-hop and R & B. After graduating, Heriveaux taught jazz combos at GSU and taught in the middle school jazz program called Rialto Youth Jazz for Kids.

Heriveaux spent two years touring with Columbia Recording Artist jazz guitarist Russell Malone, with performances all over the United States (Carnegie Hall), France, Amsterdam, Spain, and Turkey. Louis also went on a US based tour with vibraphonist Jason Marsalis, the youngest Marsalis musician, a family member of "jazz royalty" including Dizzy's in New York and SFJAZZ collective in San Francisco jazz. Most recently he has spent time recording and touring with bassist Rodney Jordan. Currently, Heriveaux has been playing mostly in the southeast region of the United States in clubs, restaurants, festivals and concerts with Atlanta-based artists, as well as traveling artists passing through, such as Mace Hibbard, Melvin Jones, Russell Gunn, Rodney Jordan, Bob Reynolds, Jimmy Heath, Eric Vaughn, Bobby Broom, Jeannie Bryson, Curtis Lundy, Bobby Watson and many more. Pre-pandemic, Louis performed regularly at Houston's, an upscale restaurant in Atlanta. In Fall 2021, Heriveaux plans to pursue a Master of Music with a concentration in Jazz Studies at Georgia State University. He hopes to share his academic experiences and his musical experiences including his unique perspective with college students in the future. About Allied Arts: Allied Arts is a 501(c) 3 organization whose goal is to make quality arts opportunities available and accessible to those we serve in the Milledgeville and Baldwin County area through a wide array of art experiences. You can contact them at 478-452-3950 or by visiting the Marlor House at 201 N Wayne. St, Milledgeville, GA. The Georgia College Department of Music provides a liberal arts-oriented education in music that prepares students to embark on rewarding career paths within the field of music and beyond while emphasizing the cultivation of critical thinking skills and global perspectives. For more information about our program and performances, please email music@gcsu.edu or call 478-445-8289 or visit our website: music.gcsu.edu

Celebrating the "U" in Community: Featuring Matinee showing of "Mooz-lum" and conversation with Director Qasim Basir

Cultural Center : Tuesday August 31, 2021

September 9, 2021 | Magnolia Ballroom

Movie Showtimes: 12:00 PM & 3:00 PM

Conversation with Qasim Basir: 6:00 PM

Are you aware of the unique diversity that you add to our community? At Georgia College we respect and celebrate each other, so that all may feel welcome. Sometimes the transition to college for those that are deemed "different" is not so pleasant and can even be scary. Join us for an matinee to watch the feature film, "Mooz-lum" directed by Qasam Basir, about a new first-year student and his transition to his new community that offers both acceptance and resistance based upon his background. Then join us for a conversation with the Director of the film, Qasim Basir at 6:00 PM! It's an opportunity you don't want to miss. Get a jumpstart on learning how "U" are essential to our inclusive CommUnity! Hosted by the Cultural Center and Office of Inclusive Excellence

Qasim Basir is an award-winning filmmaker who grew up between Ann Arbor and Detroit. Qasim went on to study at Clark Atlanta University and Wayne State University where he graduated with a degree in criminal justice & prelaw. At the age of 17, during his senior year at high school, Qasim took his first film class, and there is where his journey began. Running around Detroit filming on the streets, in the projects, and on campus, and with the intrigue and inspiration of film, he spent time, (wherever he could) reading any book that he could get his hands on. Qasim Basir's first feature MOOZ-LUM was originally a short film which entered into the One Nation Film Competition, where Danny Glover was one of the judges. MOOZ-LUM is a coming-of-age tale about a young Muslim boy going to college around the September 11 attacks. Danny Glover's company (Louverture films) then reached out to Qasim with interest of his short becoming a feature, and with much time and effort, MOOZ-LUM the feature film was made, and went on to win Best film at Urbanworld Film Festival, and was also nominated for an NAACP Image Award as well as 3 Black Reel Awards. MOOZ-LUM stars included Nia Long, Evan Ross & Danny Glover. The film was released theatrically in 2011 and went on to platforms via Starz, Netflix and Amazon. The film gained international recognition, opening in over 25 countries. Adding to the relevance of MOOZ-LUM, the US Government invited Qasim to host screenings in Rome, Milan, Padua and other cities to open dialogue surrounding immigration disparities. Globally, Qasim has been a key speaker and presenter for his feature film MOOZ-LUM at many esteemed Universities and Colleges.

Qasim Basir, then went on to write and direct his second feature film DESTINED, starring

Cory Hardrict, Jesse Metcalfe, Margot Bingham, Hill Harper, Zulay Henao and La La Anthony. DESTINED premiered at the 2016 LA Film Festival, and has garnered numerous accolades including Best Director and Actor at the 2016 American Black Film Festival and Best Narrative Feature at Urbanworld that same year. DESTINED was released theatrically in the Fall of 2017 and on VOD platforms early 2018. Basir recently directed and co-wrote A Boy, A Girl, A Dream, starring Omari Hardwick and Meagan Good. The film had its world premiere at the 2018 Sundance Film Festival. A Boy, A Girl, A Dream follows two people who meet on the night of the 2016 Presidential election and sharing their feelings of panic, despair, anger, and hope in the face of a radically changing nation. After Sundance, A Boy, A Girl, A Dream was picked up by Samuel Goldwyn with a September 2018 release nationwide to rave reviews, spending months at 100% on Rotten Tomatoes.

Next up, Qasim was brought on to direct the film "Hawk", which follows the true story of supreme underdog Andrew Hawkins, who gained entry into the NFL after faking his height, weight and social status to earn a multimillion-dollar contract with the Cleveland Browns. Shooting later this year. A daily ambition for Qasim is to keep growing and getting better with your creative expression and keep people around you who will challenge you. Currently in the works, Qasim is developing a few films as well as a TV show.
