Notes on Attachments

You must open this document in Adobe Reader (or equivalent) to see attached documents. Most browsers do not allow access to these embedded files.

The screenshot shows the Adobe Reader interface. At the top, there is a toolbar with icons for save, star, cloud, print, and search, along with page navigation controls (up, down arrows, page number 10 / 116, and zoom in/out buttons) and a zoom level of 117%. On the left side, there is a sidebar with icons for document, bookmark, and search. The main area is divided into two panels: 'Attachments' and 'ORGANIZER'. The 'Attachments' panel is highlighted with a green box and contains a list of PDF files. The 'ORGANIZER' panel displays the document's structure, including a 'DEPARTMENT WEB SITE' section with a blue link and an 'ATTACHMENT' section with a red note and a green link. A green arrow points from the 'Georgia Power seminar series.pdf' file in the Attachments panel to the corresponding link in the Organizer panel.

The 6th Annual Making Excellence Inclusive Day Program on August 9, 2022

Inclusive Excellence, Office of : Tuesday August 2, 2022

The Office of Inclusive Excellence is excited to host our 6th Annual Making Excellence Inclusive Day on Tuesday, August 9, 2022 from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM in the Arts and Sciences Auditorium. Please be sure to complete the registration form.

Our opening session will feature Dr. Kelley Ditzel, Dr. Stephanie McClure, and Mr. Moses Malloy sharing research related to racial demographic changes and shifts in enrollment at Georgia College and within the USG. Our opening session will then shift into a student panel where students will share their responses to the research presented and will offer insights into their experiences at Georgia College.

Breakout sessions, led by our Faculty and Staff Diversity Peer Educators and invited presenters, will immediately follow our opening session. The sessions will be held from 10:30 am - 12:15 pm and will include the following topics such as: "Developing an Inclusive Syllabus," "Creating a Fully LGBTQ+ Inclusive Community Through Shared Understanding," "Facilitating Difficult Conversations," "Navigating Impact: Tools for Taking Accountability When We Cause Harm," "What You Should Know About EEO," and "Creating a Community of Care: Utilizing a Trauma-Informed Approach in Teaching and Practice."

Following our breakout sessions, participants will engage in community conversations focused on lessons learned, resources, and action steps for moving forward during lunch.

Back to School Safely Event in partnership with First Friday

Health Promotion, Office of : Thursday August 4, 2022

Join the Office of Health Promotion and the Wellness and Rec Center with Milledgeville First Friday for one last event for summer! First Friday is hosting a classic car show, live music, and food trucks on North Wayne Street downtown from 6-8 pm. There is also a chili cookoff! The Back to School Safely event will take place in the Liberty and Kilpatrick parking lots as well as Peabody Auditorium (300 West Thomas Street).

This event will feature over 30 vendors for a Touch-a-Truck and health fair. The Touch-a-truck will be in the parking lots and the Health Fair will take place in Peabody Auditorium.

This event is FREE and open to the public! All ages, students, employees, community members are encouraged to attend.

Some of the highlights of the Touch-A-Truck will include a helicopter landing (close to 5:45 pm), a Fire Safety House demonstration, pictures with Sparky Dog fire mascot, a bike rodeo (see what bike fits you best), construction, service, and emergency vehicles to climb on and explore, boats, ATVS, and an 18 wheeler truck.

The Health Fair will include all types of free information, giveaways (one vendor is giving away a smart phone for kids), and games. There will be free blood pressure screenings and other demonstrations.

From 5-6 pm, we will be holding a "Silent Hour" for anyone sensitive to loud noises and lights. At 6 pm, sirens, horns, and lights will begin.

Hop on the GC shuttle at the Bell Hall shuttle stop or the A&S shuttle stop and go between each event!

We hope you will join us for this exciting event to close out summer and learn how to be safer at home, on the highway, in the water, at school and work, and online.

Please contact rachel.pope@gcsu.edu for any questions.

CTL Workshop: Setting the Tone: Preparing for a Strong Start to the Semester!

Center for Teaching & Learning : Tuesday August 9, 2022

Date: August 12

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Location: Library 376

Welcome to the start of the new semester! Preparing for new classes gives us an opportunity to update our syllabus, modify our assignments, and consider ways to improve each course. On Friday, August 12th, at 10:00 AM, The Center for Teaching and Learning will offer a workshop that we think will help you in this process while also working on improving communication with your students. In order for your students to succeed, they will need well-described assignments, strong organization of your course materials, effective teaching behaviors, and successful completion of the work. Establishing these criteria at the beginning of the semester will provide your students with clear structures, an organized course, easily understood expectations, and a goal to shoot for when completing the course.

Come learn simple but powerful steps you can take to start your course off right and provide the necessary supports for your students and their learning.

Register at this link. We look forward to seeing you there!

"Begged, Borrowed, (and Stolen)" Recital: Guest Artist Oboist - Christa Garvey and Faculty Member Pianist - Owen Lovell

Music, Department of : Monday August 15, 2022

Thursday, Sept. 8 Georgia College & State University (GCSU) kicks off its 2022-23 musical season at 7:30 p.m. in Max Noah Recital Hall with "Begged, Borrowed (and Stolen): Collaborations for Oboe and Piano." The concert features guest artist and oboist Christa Garvey and GCSU faculty collaborator and pianist Owen Lovell. Pieces include the elegant Maurice Ravel's "Le Tombeau de Couperin" and the soulful "Incantation and Dance" by William Grant Still. A modern twist is added by Dorothy Rudd Moore's quirky "Baroque Suite," as well as more substantial works by Edvard Grieg and Francis Poulenc. This concert will also be livestreamed at www.facebook.com/GCMusicDepartment. A $5 donation is encouraged. All proceeds benefit music scholarships or the GC Department of Music through GCSU Foundation, Inc. For more information, please email music@gcsu.edu or call 478-445-8289.

Each organization will be limited to only 2 representatives. The Marketplace will be held along Greene Street in front of the residence halls.

Please be aware that NO electricity will be provided. Organizations are encouraged to only bring electronics that have the capability of being powered off batteries. We DO NOT provide tablecloths; you are encouraged to bring your own table coverings and decor to highlight your organization. We are also asking that you DO NOT bring your own tent as spacing will be limited. The event will not begin until 7 p.m., so the sun should not be a problem.

If you did not fill out the previous form from the originally scheduled Block Party, please go to this link to complete your registration.

Constitution Week Concert: "Tuning Into Politics"

Music, Department of : Thursday August 18, 2022

Monday, Sept. 19 Every fall Georgia College & State University (GCSU) holds its annual Constitution Week. And, every year, one of the most popular events is the Constitution Week Concert. At 6 p.m. in Magnolia Ballroom, this year's performance is titled, "Tuning into Politics: A program featuring music from U.S. Presidential Campaigns, 1840 to 1964." This lively production includes well-known campaign songs like "Tippecanoe and Tyler Too," "Help Us Win the Vote" and "Hello Lyndon." A lecture on the history of women's voting rights, "Journey to the Vote," will be given by Dr. Victoria Gordon, GCSU's Coverdell Visiting Scholar. The concert is sponsored by Trax on the Trail, a website co-founded by faculty member Dr. Dana Gorzelany-Mostak, and the GCSU Constitution Week Committee. Faculty and students will perform, and Dr. Jennifer Flory will conduct the university's Max Noah Singers. A $5 donation is encouraged. All proceeds benefit music scholarships or the GC Department of Music through GCSU Foundation, Inc. For more information, please email music@gcsu.edu or call 478-445-8289.

Fall 2022 Nursing Recruitment Fair

Career Center : Monday August 22, 2022

On Wednesday, August 31, 2022, students are invited to attend the Nursing Recruitment Fair in Peabody Auditorium, next to Kilpatrick Hall. This event is a great opportunity to gather information on career opportunities and make initial contacts with potential employers. Over 20 organizations will be in attendance.

You never have a second chance to make a first impression, so business attire is encouraged for this event, particularly for those graduating and seeking full-time jobs and internships. You may also wear attire appropriate for your profession if you are in clinical rotations or reporting to work in the healthcare profession that day. Résumés are also highly encouraged so that you can leave information about yourself with the representatives. Even if you have applied online, it helps the recruiter know who you are when you follow up with them at a later date. For assistance with your résumé, contact the Career Center in 110 Lanier Hall or make an appointment via Handshake.

If you are the President of a current Recognized Student Organization (RSO), or wish to start your own RSO, please make plans to attend the RSO Leader training on Sunday, August 28 at 2:00pm in Magnolia Ballroom. This training will go over the event submission process and RSO spending procedures, as well as other important information that you need in order to lead a RSO. Every organization must have two representatives attend training in order to remain active on campus. The preference is to send the President and the Treasurer, but it may also be helpful to send the student who will be responsible for submitting events into GC Connect. If you are unable to have two representatives from your organization attend this training, please let me know so that we can look at alternate arrangements. Please complete this form to sign up. If you are representing multiple organizations, please complete one form per organization.

Note: This training is mandatory for returning groups as well as officers of potential new student organizations. There is no requirement for advisors to attend training.

Women in Politics: A Panel Discussion with Current and Former Elected Officials

Philosophy Religion & Liberal Studies, Department of : Tuesday August 23, 2022

Women in Politics: A Panel Discussion with Current and Former Elected Officials

Wednesday, August 31st from 3:30-4:45pm

Magnolia Ballroom, Georgia College

Featuring:

Mary Parham-Copelan, Mayor of Milledgeville

Cathy Cox, President of Georgia College & State University, former Georgia Secretary of State

Skye Gess, Baldwin County Solicitor General

Moderator:

Victoria Gordon, Coverdell Visiting Scholar, Department of Government and Sociology

About the Speakers:

Mary Parham-Copelan is the first female mayor of the city of Milledgeville, Ga., and the second African American mayor to hold this office. She is also the second mayor to run unopposed to be elected for another four-year term. Mayor Copelan is a lifelong resident of Milledgeville. She is married to Charlie Copelan, and together they have three adult children and five grandchildren.

Cathy Cox became Georgia College & State University's 12th President on October 1st, 2021. Cox practiced law in her hometown of Bainbridge and in Atlanta for 10 years, during which time she was elected to the Georgia House of Representatives. She subsequently broke new ground in her election as Georgia's Secretary of State, becoming the first woman in Georgia's history to serve in this Constitutional office.

Skye Gess is the Solicitor General for Baldwin County. As the Solicitor, she is responsible for prosecuting misdemeanor crimes and local ordinance violations for Baldwin County. Prior to becoming the Solicitor General, Skye served as an Assistant District Attorney for the Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit. She is an experienced trial attorney who has prosecuted numerous felony and misdemeanor cases.

Victoria Gordon is a recently retired professor from Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, Kentucky. Her areas of research interest include municipal finance and human resources management, and her service has most recently focused on women and politics, with a particular focus on the 19th Amendment and the importance of exercising the right to vote. Dr. Gordon has served as a city clerk, as a county housing department director, and as a city administrator.

For information, contact Prof. Sabrina Hom at sabrina.hom@gcsu.edu

This event is free and open to the public.

Sponsored by the Women's and Gender Studies Program and the Department of Government and Sociology

Full Speaker Bios

Mayor Mary Parham-Copelan is the first female mayor of the city of Milledgeville, Ga., and the second African American mayor to hold this office. She is also the second mayor to run unopposed to be elected for another four- year term. Mayor Copelan is a lifelong resident of Milledgeville. She is married to Charlie Copelan, and together they have three adult children and five grandchildren.

Mayor Copelan received her formative years of education in the Baldwin County Public School System. She is a graduate of Baldwin High School and is a current student at Payne Theological Seminary where she is pursuing a Master of Divinity Degree.

Mayor Copelan is employed with Re/Max Central Reality Company as a Realtor as well as Mayor of our city. She is retired from the Department of Corrections as a Lieutenant and Certified Adjunct Instructor. She is also the Founder and CEO of Word of Life Interdenominational Bible Church where she serves as chief operator and pastor. The Mayor's favorite motto comes from the acclaimed film Sister Act, starring Whoopi Goldberg: "If you want to be somebody, if you want to go somewhere, you've got to wake up and pay attention. "

Mayor Copelan serves on many boards, both locally and regionally. In the past year, she has completed her term as President of the Georgia Municipal Association for the 6th District region. She now serves as a member of the National League of Cities, the Equity Inclusion board, The NBC-LEO board, as well as the Municipality NBC as second vice president. She has also served on the Georgia and International Association of Ministers Wives and Ministers Widows Association, where she has held the position of Executive Secretary at the State level, Statistician, and 2017-18 Key Lady at the State level.

Amongst her duties as both mayor and pastor, education is high on her list of priorities, so much that she continues to drive for the Baldwin County School District as a bus operator. Both of her children as well as three of her grandchildren have received their formative years of education through the Baldwin County School District. Mayor Copelan believes that education is the key that unlocks the door to unlimited possibilities. The widely known philosopher Plato left a phenomenal quote to remind us that, “The Beginning is the most important part of the work.” We all should start early in life being very inquisitive and gaining knowledge about what makes things function in life. This element of curiosity in us fosters a desire for deeper learning and understanding.

Theology philosopher, C.S. Lewis, once said, “You’re never too old to set another goal or dream a new dream.” Always dream bigger than the day before, no matter how old you are!

Cathy Cox became Georgia College & State University’s 12th President on October 1st, 2021. Prior to joining Georgia College, Cox served as Dean for Mercer University School of Law from 2017 – 2021 and served as president of Young Harris College for a decade prior to that. A native of Bainbridge, Georgia, Cox’s distinguished career in law, education, politics, and journalism embodies what it means to have a “liberal arts” background.

Having first pursued an interest in cultivating plants, Cox earned her associate’s degree at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College in Tifton, Georgia, before turning her attention to journalism at the University of Georgia where she graduated summa cum laude. Writing for The Times of Gainesville and The Post-Searchlight of Bainbridge, Cox would cover local area crime and the courts, inspiring her to pursue a degree in law. She served as editor-in-chief for the Mercer Law Review before graduating magna cum laude from Mercer Law School. Cox practiced law in her hometown of Bainbridge and in Atlanta for 10 years, during which time she was elected to the Georgia House of Representatives. She subsequently broke new ground in her election as Georgia’s Secretary of State, becoming the first woman in Georgia’s history to serve in this Constitutional office.

During her term as president of Young Harris, the small private liberal arts college garnered a reputation for excellence, growing from a two-year to a four-year institution. Cox was recognized for her work in 2017 with the Young Harris College Medallion and was named an honorary alumna. In 2020, she was named Georgia’s Woman Lawyer of the Year by the Middle Georgia Chapter of the Georgia Association of Women Lawyers.

Cox is a graduate of Leadership Georgia and the recipient of Leadership Georgia’s prestigious J.W. Fanning Award for progressive leadership and service. She has served on a number of civic, philanthropic, and business organizations and boards and is a prolific thought leader, delivering scores of keynote speeches and presentations and conducting media interviews on a wide range of topics spanning her expertise in higher education, law, politics, and election law and integrity. Cox is married to attorney Mark Dehler.

Skye Gess is the Solicitor General for Baldwin County. As the Solicitor, she is responsible for prosecuting misdemeanor crimes and local ordinance violations for Baldwin County. Prior to becoming the Solicitor General, Skye served as an Assistant District Attorney for the Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit. She is an experienced trial attorney who has prosecuted numerous felony and misdemeanor cases. Additionally, Skye believes as a community leader it is important to give back to the community. As Solicitor, she continues to grow and develop programs for domestic violence awareness and teen dating violence awareness.

Skye graduated from the University of Georgia with a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science and earned her Juris Doctorate Degree from Mercer University's Walter F. George School of Law. She is an active member of the local bar association, Rotary, and the Georgia Farm Bureau Young Farmers Program.

Dr. Victoria Gordon is the Coverdell Visiting Scholar at Georgia College for Fall 2022. She is a recently retired professor from Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, Kentucky, where she taught for sixteen years in the Department of Political Science, Master of Public Administration program, and served as the Director of the Center for Local Governments. Dr. Gordon's areas of research interest include municipal finance and human resources management, and her service has most recently focused on women and politics, with a particular focus on the 19th Amendment and the importance of exercising the right to vote. Her scholarly work is published in Economic Development Quarterly, Review of Public Personnel Administration, Public Personnel Management, International Journal of Public Administration, Journal of Public Affairs Education and Public Voices. Dr. Gordon is the author of two books—Maternity Leave: Policy and Practice (2020 second edition) and Participatory Budgeting in the United States: A Guide for Local Governments (2017). She earned her Doctor of Public Administration degree from the University of Illinois–Springfield, and her Master of Public Administration degree from the University of Kansas. Dr. Gordon has served as a city clerk, as a county housing department director, and as a city administrator. Dr. Gordon is looking forward to teaching a Women and Politics course this semester and connecting GCSU students, faculty, staff and greater Milledgeville community to programming focused on the journey to the passage of the 19th Amendment and continuing challenges to exercising the right to vote.

Piano Studio Recital: "Duets"

Music, Department of : Tuesday August 30, 2022

Sunday, Sept. 25 Join us for the "GC Piano Studio Recital—Duets," featuring students of the piano studio of Dr. Owen Lovell, at 3 p.m. in Magnolia Ballroom at the Student Activities Center. This recital is an annual tradition at the sixth week of classes when students and alumni can showcase their talents.

This year's recital will be all duets played on a restored 1889 "Burrell" Steinway Model A grand piano. Four-hand duets require a special physical and musical technique to execute. Partners must work together to ensure a successful performance, Lovell said. The program promises a varied array of music—including traditional pieces by German composer Ludwig van Beethoven, Czech composer Antonín Leopold Dvorak, Norwegian composer Edvard Grieg and French composer Maurice Ravel. The recital will conclude with a faculty performance of Austrian composer Franz Schubert's iconic "Fantasy in F minor."

This concert will also be livestreamed at www.facebook.com/GCMusicDepartment. A $5 donation is encouraged. All proceeds benefit music scholarships or the GC Department of Music through GCSU Foundation, Inc. For more information, please email music@gcsu.edu or call 478-445-8289.

Reminder - Best Buddies interest meeting

General Institution : Wednesday August 31, 2022

Best Buddies is a campus organization that provides a space of inclusion for members of the Milledgeville community that have intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) through one-to-one friendships and monthly events with Georgia College students. Our college member meetings are once a month on Thursdays, and our monthly event with the Buddies will be the following Thursday.

Our goal is to educate Georgia College students on disabilities and promote inclusion on campus. Our interest meeting is September 8th at 7:30, we hope to see you there! Join our GroupMe through this link: https://groupme.com/join_group/88551128/FTcw0kmk
