The Cantare Brass Quintet is a group of dynamic chamber musicians committed to delivering exceptional performances in brass chamber music. Established in 2023, the ensemble and its members have been actively involved in a multitude of creative professional endeavors across various universities and community, public, and private music programs throughout the United States.

The ensemble consists of university professors and professional musicians hailing from different corners of the United States. Dr. Maximillian McNutt, Lecturer of Trumpet at the University of Virginia; Dr. Michael Gause, Assistant Professor of Trumpet at the University of Iowa; Dr. Andrew Sehmman, 2nd horn with the South Carolina Philharmonic and various universities within Georgia (USA); Dr. Aaron Zalkind, Principal Trombone of the New Mexico Philharmonic; and Dr. Patrick Young, Assistant Professor of Low Brass/Director of Bands at Idaho State University.

CBQ is dedicated to expanding outreach within music education programs globally through performances, instrumental coaching, and clinics. By curating modern and unique programming and repertoire, we offer a distinctive experience to a younger demographic that might not typically encounter brass chamber music at such a high caliber. As a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, we are committed to fostering a reputation built on trust, diversity, care, and inclusivity for individuals of all ages and backgrounds.
