Ravta et rivam Rex Isenberg

Translation: You waged their battles, defended their rights, and avenged the wrong done to them. You delivered the mighty into the hands of the weak, the many into the hands of the few, the impure into the hands of the pure, the wicked into the hands of the righteous, and the sinners into the hands of those who occupy themselves with Your Torah.

You made a great and holy name for Yourself in Your world, and effected a great deliverance and redemption for Your people Israel to this very day.

Then Your children entered the shrine of Your House, cleansed Your Temple, purified Your Sanctuary, kindled lights in Your holy courtyards, and instituted these eight days of Chamukah to give thanks and praise to Your great Name. Amen

Saxophone Choir

Andrew J. Allen, director

This Night David Biedenbender

Originally written for the choir VocalEssence and their director Philip Brunelle in 2012, this is a new setting by the composer for saxophone choir. The work originally set the text "This Night a Wondrous Revelation," written by Caspar Friedrich Nachtenhöfer in 1683.

*This night a wondrous revelation
Makes known to me God's love and grace;
The Child that merits adoration
Brings light to our benighted race;
And though a thousand suns did shine,
Still brighter were that Light divine.*

*The Sun of Grace for thee is beaming;
Rejoice, my soul, in Jesus' birth!
The light from yonder manger streaming
Sends forth its rays o'er all the earth.
It drives the night of sin away
And turns our darkness into day.*

*This Light, which all thy gloom can banish,
The bliss of heaven glorifies;
When sun and moon and stars shall vanish,
Its rays shall still illumine the skies.
This light through all eternity
Thy heaven and all to thee shall be*
