Christmas at the Mansion

By Kaitlin Bryan on Nov. 04, 2024

Discover a holiday experience like no other in Milledgeville, Georgia. As the fourth state capital, this city is steeped in history and stunning architecture. One of Milledgeville's landmark sites, Georgia's Old Governor's Mansion, comes alive during the holidays, transforming into a breathtaking display with historically accurate decor and a jaw-dropping Christmas tree—named by the New York Post as one of the best in America. A cherished tradition for locals and an unforgettable highlight for visitors, this Milledgeville experience is truly a must-see. The Mansion will be decorated and open for tours from November 16th-22nd and December 3rd-23rd.
