2921. >> And you have a chance to meet the candidates hoping to lead a milledgeville tonight. You can hear why each candidate believes they deserve your vote. It's happening at a forum on the campus of georgia college and state university. The biggest race is for mayor where incumbent mary parham copeland faces challenger walter reynolds. That forum starts at six tonight. Inside the pat peterson education room on the university's campus. And today is september
