

06:08:05

Highlight

Scroll

news at 13wmaz.com. >> 607 this morning the u.s. news and world report released their new best college rankings. it's the standard that most universities use to actually measure their status. so let's get a look at how our local colleges stacked up. georgia college and state university earned three top ten spots. their highest honor is ranking number five among all public colleges in the south. now fort valley state university was named georgia's top public hbcu for the eighth year in a row. vsu also jumped in national rankings landing among the top 25 public schools in the south . and male georgia