...is happening between 4 pm and 5 pm at the corner of ... Church. Live in studio. Brianna Cook, WGN news. Thank you. Brianna. Georgia College and State University has a new facility that's worth singing about. The school unveiled its brand new music rehearsal hall today. The building is around 10,000ft² at the corner of Wayne and Montgomery Streets. It's designed with high ceilings, keeping acoustics in mind for choral ensembles, orchestra and percussion. We actually have rehearsal hall that we can call is the state of the art in terms of sound, in terms of acoustical ability, in terms of just being able to practice and hear clearly. And so it's something that we've been wanting and needing for quite a while. The school says two donors, Doctor Medina, none from the class of 1957, and Sandra Rossiter, class of 1962, each made donations that have led to spaces in their names. Happening tonight in Peach County is the fall
