Sarasota:

Say the word

I'm afraid I'll come running to you.

I'm afraid that it would be too soon.

You draw me in. You do.

You asked for the truth, baby

That's why I gave it to you.

But when all was said, all you could do was turn away, confused.

If you love me, baby say the word.

I never wanna watch another pair of hands touch your face.

If you want me, baby, let me know. A world without your loving eyes is not a world that I would take.

Sarasota brings me back to the child I am. Makes me want to take what I can, and I want you. I do.

If you love me, baby say the word.

I never wanna watch another pair of hands touch your face.

If you want me, baby, let me know. A world without your loving eyes is not a world that I would take.

I hope that you don't give up on me.

Sweet Understanding:

Summer days were longer then

An endless place to rest my head

Everything was simpler then

Family was a given then

I found you amongst the trees

Natural sincerity brought me to my knees

I traded old beliefs for change

And everything you showed to me

Was sweet understanding

Shining down on me again

But nothing I could do or say would ever make you love me more

Love me more

You are beauty, you are grace

As you move the hair out of your face

It kills me when you ask for space

Life began with your embrace

Sweet Understanding, shine your light on me, on me again

But your pity, all my pain would never make you love me more

All my growth, all my change might

Never make you love me more

Crying on the bathroom floor could

Never make you love me more

Summer might be ending with a heart attack because the curtains will be closing and they're fading to black
This summer could be ending with a heart attack cause every moment that I've witnessed you I've wanted you back
Friends
We're friends
But for me
It's a means to an end
Could it be this is really the end?

The sweet understanding
Shinning down me again
That when nothing I can do or say would ever make you love me more
I'm free again

I Want To Be Yours:

I must've come alive when I saw you light up a smile on that familiar face. We might've come to die on this hill, or maybe we've come to get to a better place.
My baby was the first one to see me, first one to need me, first to look my way. And closeness was a wonderful feeling, nothing could harm me where those fingers grace

The days fall through I blame myself, I blame myself, I do. Days passed by and it's true. I blame myself, I blame myself.

But I won't wait anymore, I have flown when the light falls through me, I want to be yours. And I'll never go home. When the dark falls through me I want to be yours.

Reconfiguration was the last thing I needed. Pushing me out the nest to a big blue world. I fell towards a skyline that gave no path. In the aftermath I chose to let the Days pass by as they do. We named ourselves, became ourselves, me and you. Days pass by and it's true. We change ourselves, rearrange ourselves.

But I won't wait anymore, I have flown when the light falls through me, I want to be yours. And I'll never go home. When the dark falls through me I want to be yours.

See Me Too:

Waking up
With a heavy heart
Knowing how
My day will start
Memories flashing
Like fireworks
Oh Lord, how long
Is my heart gon' hurt?
Each day I wonder
Do you feel the same?
Or does my pain
Keep you entertained?
And now that you hold
A different hand
I can only pray, one day
You'll understand...

I hope your new girl
Is a punishment...

When you see her
From across the room
Do you think of me
What I was to you
Or does your mind
Sense a familiar tune
When you see her
Do you see me too?

Meanwhile I
Can't forget a sticking past Reminiscing how you
Made me laugh
Now a silence stretches
When I say your name
But to you this was all

Just another game
I've shed
Tears God said
I won't get back
Got emotions
That I can't even start to unpack
And in Years to come I can already see
You've moved in your life
And what of me?

Hope a lack of your lovin'
Doesn't make me weak...

Look at her
In her eyes, so close
What do you miss
About me the most?
Is it the way we touch
Or the way we fall
In love, or nothing
Nothing at all...

When you see her
From across the room
Do you think of me
What I was to you
Or does your mind
Sense a familiar tune
When you see her
Do you see me too?

See me too...?
Well I hope you do...
Cus every day...all I see is you

Story of Bug:

Welcome to a
Mind busy with imagination
While I'm
navigating life post-graduation
Got a life long story I'd like to share
So if you're feeling kinda nosy
Come and pull up a chair
My name's Bug
And I like stuffed animals
And cheesy goldfish too
They make me feel incredible
And I've been missing old family and friends
So I'm counting down the days
Until they see me again
You might can guess
That music has my heart
Classical piano's where I got my start
And through my passion, I've made many new friends
And when I'm with them, the smiles
They never end
Plus I like to sing and dance around
In a room with my headphones, that's where I can be found
And I'm a hugger and lover, big smiles for free
I talk too much and laugh a lot, but that's original me
I'm a night owl 'cause I like to sleep
Cuddlin' under blankets while I watch TV
And my other favorite part of day is at noon
'Cause it's bright, sun shining, and it heightens my mood Love colors all around, but my favorite is blue Momma said it's my favorite 'cause it's Granny's too Ballet, tap, and jazz is what I used to dance
And I'd do it all again if I had the chance
And that's the song I created for me
Up to a lot of things every day, you see
But I'm never lacking to being loved
That's the story of a girl named Bug

Glass:

I go to school, then I come home
I have to be quiet, so I don't disturb your tone
I understand cause it's not easy for you
I wash my hands as I wait for you
Where it go? All my self-control?
Is it in the back of the car on the road?
I try to relate to the conversation
But I have nothing to say, just want you to listen
I try to forgive, but I just keep replaying all the things that I wish I could say
Where it go? All my self-control?
Is it in the back of the car on the road?
Pick up the glass
I tidy the kitchen
I do what is asked God forbid that I'm human
We've been driving forever, I'm in the back seat Small enough to be back here, and no one bugs
But I wanna get it out
Wanna be the driver
Cause I see the glass on the road and your gonna run it over What if I don't pick up the glass?
What if I don't stay here?
Can I do that, or am I stuck here?
Where it go? All my self-control?
Is it in the back of the car on the road?
How can I go on?
How can I sing my songs without you listening?
I only got to know you briefly
because your
Life is gone
How can I? (4x)
How can I go on?
How can I sing my songs without you listening?
I only got to know you briefly
because your
Life is gone

Life:

It's been too long
Since you would smile at me
I'm feeling like I'm in a box
Cause you won't know me past 19
How can I go on?
How can I sing my songs without you listening?
I only got to know you briefly
because your
Life is gone
It was painful to see you
In a state that I can't prevent
I feel like I can't breathe Because I don't have a reason to do anything without you
How can I go on?
How can I sing my songs without you listening?
I only got to know you briefly
because your
Life is gone
Your life is gone
But your love is with me (3x)
But your love and your light is with me
I have your eyes in my heart
And your story in mine, and I'll tell everybody like you're still alive

Waiting:

I wanna know you
I wanna see you grow
I want to be there for you but you're out of view Can't you see that It hurts me too

Why can't you love me like i love

what are you waiting for?
Are you wanting more?
why do u never call
i just want to comfort u i used to laugh with you see you flourish

i used to be there even when i couldn't always by my side backseats empty memories flood over me now i'm driving alone in an empty car going too far

what are you waiting for?
Are you wanting more?
why do u never call
i just want to comfort u

I just want to comfort you.
Won't you let me do that for you?
Let me into your room?
Let me be your person too

Let me love you,
Let me hold you,
Let me breathe you.
Let me fix you c9

Can I bring you back
Can't you be here
I hate that you're gone and I'm still here

what are you waiting for?
Are you wanting more?
why do u never call
i just want to comfort you

Pushing Through:

pushing through each day taking all of my energy it's hard to show how you really feel when the feeling is overwhelming

pushing through
day by day
nap by nap
pushing through pushing through each minute feelings are there keeping your back trying to move on from the past the past comes back in the weirdest ways remembering the feelings of love

pushing through
day by day
nap by nap
pushing through but days go on and friends move on the feeling of being alone

All the days coming together as one as i push along pushing through each conversation word by word pretending i'm okay i'm all alone but really not so i just move along

You Wouldn't See Me:

North or west?
I still haven't made it yet.
So I'll just sit in the grass
And watch the sky instead South or east?
It don't mean that much to me
Time keeps flowing around us
A river without a rush
The people they pass me by
I see 'em with my eyes
But they can't see me
No, they can't see me
I'm flyin' above the clouds
And I'm not trying to come down
You wouldn't see me
No, you wouldn't see me again

Backroads to Savannah:

I took the backroads to Savannah
I thought about you on the drive
I went through your hometown Flipped the bird as I went by Passed a lot of churches
With signs to save my soul
But I don't have the time so I'll Just stick to rock and roll
I smoke a cigarette
While driving down the line
While doing something dangerous,
Do two! The time is right
One of them will kill you
And one will kill you slow
It just makes life seem sweeter,
Seeing death on down the road
I fiddle with the dial
Trying to hear you through the noise
You never were a singer
But I always loved your voice
I can't drive in silence
So I turn you up and smile
I light another cigarette
And drive another mile
Driven through the moonrise
And my tank is running low I can't afford to Take my heart out on the road
Guess I'll take the highway
It'll get me there with speed
But backroads fill my heart up
In just the way I need

Don't Make Me Miss You:

Don't make me miss you
That's so cliché
Don't leave me lonesome
That's overplayed
I want to love you
As best I can
Don't make me miss you
I'm already your man
We've known each other
For so damn long
We sometimes wander
Is that so wrong?
We've had some good times
And some weren't great
It never mattered
When I would see your face
Don't have to play so hard to get cause I been got
You know me better from the bottom to the top
We've gone around town picking lovers up like fights
But when all is said and done, I'm still kissing you good night
There's sometime timeless
About your face
I can't forget you
My mind's your place
I'll love you gentle
And love you fierce I'll love you simply
As we pass through the years
