

The Union-Recorder welcomes new employees

Published 2:27 pm Thursday, June 25, 2026

By From Staff Reports

The Union-Recorder recently welcomed two new employees.

Joseph Palmese joined The U-R newsroom as a summer intern through the Georgia Press Association. He began writing for the newspaper as a freelancer in the spring.

He is a senior at Georgia College & State University, majoring in multimedia journalism with a minor in rhetoric. He was born and raised in Canton, Ga. He is a general assignment reporter and provides sports coverage. After graduation, he plans to pursue a job in journalism.