

SANDRA DUNAGAN DEAL
CENTER FOR EARLY LANGUAGE
AND LITERACY
AT GEORGIA COLLEGE & STATE UNIVERSITY

NOW HIRING! COMMUNICATIONS SPECIALIST

The Communications Specialist is responsible for managing the processes of and developing content for a wide range of communication platforms for the Sandra Dunagan Deal Center for Early Language and Literacy (Deal Center) – including press releases, story content for web and print publications, internal and external communications, email, and social media account management. This position will involve strategic planning and collaborating with Deal Center Team members, GCSU, and external partners to convey our work across the State of Georgia.

The Sandra Dunagan Deal Center for Early Language and Literacy was founded in 2017 as a statewide center for the promotion of research and evidence based practices for early language and literacy. We serve Georgia families, communities, and educators in childcare centers, pre-schools, and K-3 classrooms by conducting research and evaluation, community outreach, and professional development to improve early language and literacy outcomes.

Required Qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree in Communications, Public Relations, Marketing, or related field
- 2 or more years experience with writing and publishing skills, website design and maintenance, creating content for digital media and social media

Preferred Qualifications

- Master's Degree
- (3) years or more of relevant work experience

GREAT BENEFITS INCLUDING:

- Retirement planning
- Paid Holidays
- Annual /Sick Leave
- Health Insurance
- Dental and Vision Insurance
- Life Insurance

We envision a Georgia where EVERYONE has the tools to support children on the path to literacy.
Join us today!

To apply, please scan or visit:

<https://www.gcsu.edu/humanresources/employment-opportunities>

