

Constitution

WEEK EVENTS

Georgia College

for full details visit libguides.gcsu.edu/constitutionweek

17

12 p.m.

CONSTITUTION DAY WELCOME & DEBATE

Welcome by GC Provost Costas Spirou
Governor's Mansion Education Room

FREE SPEECH & SOCIAL MEDIA * TRAX ON THE TRAIL

Lunch discussion at noon in Terrell 301 (News Room)
Trax on the Trail Concert at 6 p.m. in Magnolia Ballroom

20

12 & 6 p.m.

21

12 & 5 p.m.

IMMIGRATION * USERY FORUM ON LEADERSHIP

Lunch discussion at noon at the HUB (Cultural Center)
Media Literacy & the Future of Democracy at 5 p.m. in Peabody

TIMES TALK * COVID & THE HEALTH OF DEMOCRACY

Online discussion at noon on upholding Native American treaties
Constitutional Issues & COVID Panel at 6 p.m. in A&S Auditorium

22

12 & 6 p.m.

23

12 & 6 p.m.

ABORTION * SUPREME COURT REVIEW PANEL

Online discussion at noon on the future of Roe v. Wade
Review of Recent USSC Cases at 6 p.m. in A&S Auditorium

Georgia College Sponsors: College of Arts & Sciences, J. Whitney Bunting College of Business, American Democracy Project, Cultural Center, Leadership Programs, the Honors College, Lounsbury College of Education, College of Health Sciences, Carl Vinson Chair, and Office of the Provost.

This program was made possible through the collaborative work of Constitution Week committee members Steve Elliott-Gower, Jaclyn Queen, Jan Hoffman, Harold Mock, Dean Copelan, Nicholas Creel, Gennady Rudkevich, Sara Stallings, Roddran Grimes, Tanya Darden, Andrea Christoff, Sarah Myers, Kari Brown, Angie Moxley, Keith Bergeron, Adam Lamparello, and Jehan El-Jourbagy.

