

GEORGIA ELECTION ADMINISTRATION SYMPOSIUM

State and local election officials will gather at Georgia College & State University, home of the state's only academic Election Administration Certificate programs, to discuss the evolution, processes, and challenges of administering elections in the battleground state of Georgia.

MONDAY, SEPT. 30, 2024
PEABODY AUDITORIUM

3:00 P.M.

Who are Georgia's Election Officials?

Georgia's Election Workforce and Promoting Public Service and Career Paths in Election Administration

Panelists: Former state election official, Dr. Jesse Harris, local election officials, and student poll workers from the GCSU Election Administration Certificate program.

4:30-5:30 P.M.

Welcome Reception for Georgia Election Officials

6:00 P.M.

What are the challenges that election administrators face?

Election Administration in a Battleground State: Preparing for the 2024 Presidential Election from the Perspectives of State and Local Election Officials

Panelists: Former Secretary of State and University President Cathy Cox and state and local election officials.

GEORGIA COLLEGE
& STATE UNIVERSITY

SCAN THE QR CODE TO REGISTER

SPONSORED BY:

DEPARTMENT OF GOVERNMENT AND SOCIOLOGY, ELECTION ADMINISTRATION CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS, THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT