

FILM SCREENING & DISCUSSION

TUESDAY,
JANUARY 27TH,
5:00–7:00 PM

FOOD PROVIDED

ARTS AND SCIENCES
363

No Más Bebés documents the stories of Mexican-American women coerced into sterilization at Los Angeles County General Hospital during the 1960s and 1970s, and the young Chicana lawyer who fought for justice on their behalf. A post-screening discussion will follow, exploring themes of reproductive justice, medical racism, and the lasting impact of this case.

Questions? Email Dr. Janelle Pham at janelle.pham@gcsu.edu