

USG Great Basics

hosted by

Leadership and Institutional Development

About Great Basics

Great Basics is a virtual workshop series offered to USG institutional employees as a way for individuals to learn and build leadership-related skills through interactive sessions. These sessions focus on a variety of professional development topics and will allow attendees to immediately implement the skills they learn in their workplace. Sessions are designed to be relevant and applicable whether you are leading yourself or leading teams.

October 2025 | The Heart of Collaboration

Tues., October 28, 2025

9:00 AM - 10:00 AM

Microsoft Teams

Register Here

Questions? Email
USOTHRIVES@usg.edu

Collaboration is about much more than group projects. High performing teams inspire, motivate, and guide each other towards goal accomplishments—all while building meaningful relationships. Join us for Great Basics this month, where we'll discuss the heart of collaboration and its dependency on team creativity, trust, and tenacity.