Author of How to Think Like a Woman: Four Women Philosophers Who Taught Me How to Love the Life of the Mind

Wed, Sept 13, 2023

5:00 p.m. – 6:15 p.m.

Arts and Sciences 275

From the book's synopsis: "In How to Think Like a Woman, Penaluna blends memoir, biography, and criticism to tell these women's stories, weaving throughout an alternative history of philosophy as well as her own search for love and truth. Funny, honest, and wickedly intelligent, this is a searing look at the author's experience of patriarchy and sexism in academia, and a moving meditation on what philosophy could look like if women were treated equally."

Penaluna is a writer and journalist based in Brooklyn. Previously, she was an editor at Nautilus Magazine and Guernica, where she wrote and edited long-form stories and interviews. A feature she wrote was listed in The Atlantic as one of "100 Exceptional Works of Journalism." Penaluna holds a master's degree in journalism and a Ph.D. in philosophy.
