

SANDRA DUNAGAN DEAL
CENTER FOR EARLY LANGUAGE
AND LITERACY
AT GEORGIA COLLEGE & STATE UNIVERSITY

NOW HIRING! STUDENT TUTOR

The Student Tutor will gain experience in education through close interaction with the Deal Center's Program Manager and certified supervising teachers from Baldwin County School District. The responsibilities of this position require professionalism, interpersonal skills, and a willingness to learn and apply effective teaching and learning strategies for working with elementary-age children. This position serves as a peer tutor for striving K-2 readers, and will participate in training, data collection, and other duties as needed.

The Sandra Dunagan Deal Center for Early Language and Literacy was founded in 2017 as a statewide center for the promotion of research and evidence based practices for early language and literacy. We serve Georgia families, communities and educators in childcare centers, pre-schools and K-3 classrooms by conducting research and evaluation, community outreach and professional development to improve early language and literacy outcomes for children and families.

Required Qualifications

- Enrolled in at least (6) credit hours as an undergraduate at GCSU

Preferred Qualifications

- Enthusiasm for teaching and learning
- Experience in working with young children (K-2)
- Interest in education, literacy, and/or child development

Great Opportunities

- Support local K-2 students' reading development
- Choose your weekly commitment (3 - 6 hours)
- Competitive Pay
- Strengthen your collaborative planning skills
- Receive complimentary training in Science of Reading curriculum

We envision a Georgia where EVERYONE has the tools to support children on the path to literacy.
Join us today!

To apply, please scan or visit:

<https://www.gcsu.edu/humanresources/employment-opportunities>